Jenkins, 2005 Denounced by some as a dangerous cult and lauded by others as a miraculous faith community the International Churches of Christ was a conservative evangelical Christian movement that grew rapidly in the 1980s and 1990s Among its followers promises to heal family relationships were central to the group's appeal Members credit the church for helping them develop so called awesome families successful marriages and satisfying relationships with children family of origin and new church brothers and sisters The church engaged an elaborate array of services including round the clock counseling childcare and Christian dating networks all of which were said to lead to fulfilling relationships and exciting sex lives Before the unified movement s demise in 2003 2004 the lure of blissful family life led more than 100 000 individuals worldwide to be baptized into the church In Awesome Families Kathleen Jenkins draws on four years of ethnographic research to explain how and why so many individuals primarily from middle to upper middle class backgrounds were attracted to this religious group that was founded on principles of enforced community explicit authoritative relationships and therapeutic ideals Weaving classical and contemporary social theory she argues that members were commonly attracted to the structure and practice of family relationships advocated by the church especially in the context of contemporary society where gender roles and family responsibilities are often ambiguous Tracing the rise and fall of this fast growing religious movement this timely study adds to our understanding of modern society and offers insight to the difficulties that revivalist movements have in sustaining growth

Lindsey-Billingsley, Leadership Gems in the Bible: The Old Testament, Volume 1 Chris Omoijiade, Let the Women Keep Silent in the Churches Diane Brooks Bundy, 2022-02-03 For centuries the question of who and what women should or should not be doing in God s churches has been labeled down through the centuries as one of the great controversies and it remains today to be a big conflict in 2019 The passages in 1 Corinthians 14 34 35 and 1 Timothy 2 11 12 found in the New Testament have been used and abused wrongfully to satisfy and appease the opinions and theories of the male mind set to satisfy the perspectives of the overview of what some pastors and some men believe God has set positive proof before us in the Old Testament and Jesus and the Apostle Paul in the New Testament about a woman s place in the church in ministry and in leadership This is an argument that should have been put to rest centuries past To persist in asking this question is to doubt God and to deny His Word for God and His Word are one The Bible says in 2 Timothy 3 16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God The Greek word for inspiration is theospneustos which literally means God breathed Every word of the Bible is God breathed directly from God s own mouth therefore it is infallible According to some pastors and men of today this is absolutely unheard of and the actions displayed by men is that even though God is God God had no right to put women in these positions with power or authority What about the women that labored with Paul How do we account for all those women How do we explain the women who fought for God on the front line and were fellow laborers with God in the Old Testament and Jesus in the New Testament as well as Paul Nowhere in the entire Bible is there a hint of evidence that God Jesus or the Apostle Paul ever indicated that women were not to be in leadership roles or in ministry Read the book search the scriptures and find out for yourselves      The Shaw's Revised King James Holy Bible Rev Terrance Shaw Ph.
