Chambliss,Linda Valli,2011-07-16 Engaging students in worthwhile learning requires more than a knowledge of underlying principles of good teaching It demands considerable practice as well as images of what good teaching in particular situations and for particular purposes might look like This volume provides these images These cases were written from authentic unrehearsed lessons taught by upper elementary classroom teachers to diverse groups of real students in intact classrooms Each lesson contains elements of sound instructional practice from which both preservice and in service teachers can benefit Cases are not meant to be ideal but rather to evoke ways of seeing and thinking about good classroom instruction for all learners Accompanied by analytic commentaries from experts representing a particular perspective such as special education and ESOL these unrehearsed cases are written with the understanding that teaching is complex and multi dimensional The cases are drawn from a four year study of 4th and 5th grade mathematics instruction of culturally diverse classrooms with relatively high rates of students from low income families Literature for Disadvantaged Children ,1968 Manchild in the Promised Land Claude Brown,2012-01-03 Manchild in the Promised Land is indeed one of the most remarkable autobiographies of our time This thinly fictionalized account of Claude Brown s childhood as a hardened streetwise criminal trying to survive the toughest streets of Harlem has been heralded as the definitive account of everyday life for the first generation of African Americans raised in the Northern ghettos of the 1940s and 1950s When the book was first published in 1965 it was praised for its realistic portrayal of Harlem the children young people hardworking parents the hustlers drug dealers prostitutes and numbers runners the police the violence sex and humour The book continues to resonate generations later not only because of its fierce and dignified anger not only because the struggles of urban youth are as deeply felt today as they were in Brown s time but also because the book is affirmative and inspiring Here is the story about the one who made it the boy who kept landing on his feet and became a man Multicultural Women's Sourcebook Martha Cotera,1982 Multicultural American History Kay Chick,Deborah A.
