guessed was so pervasive so intriguing so worthy of a book Jody Enders University of California Santa Barbara Stumbling Blocks Before the Blind presents the first comprehensive exploration of a disability in the Middle Ages drawing on the literature history art history and religious discourse of England and France It relates current theories of disability to the cultural and institutional constructions of blindness in the eleventh through fifteenth centuries examining the surprising differences in the treatment of blind people and the responses to blindness in these two countries The book shows that pernicious attitudes about blindness were partially offset by innovations and ameliorations social literary and to an extent medical that began to foster a fuller understanding and acceptance of blindness A number of practices and institutions in France both positive and negative blinding as punishment the foundation of hospices for the blind and some medical treatment resulted in not only attitudes that commodified human sight but also inhumane satire against the blind in French literature both secular and religious Anglo Saxon and later medieval England differed markedly in all three of these areas and the less prominent position of blind people in society resulted in noticeably fewer cruel representations in literature This book will interest students of literature history art history and religion because it will provide clear contexts for considering any medieval artifact relating to blindness a literary text a historical document a theological treatise or a work of art For some readers the book will serve as an introduction to the field of disability studies an area of increasing interest both within and outside of the academy Edward Wheatley is Surtz Professor of Medieval Literature at Loyola University Chicago New Zealand Writing Mark Pirie, 1998 A collection of poetry and prose by thirty emerging writers of the 1990s Some of the work has appeared previously in magazines and books The editor's introduction discusses recent developments in New Zealand writing and the styles of the writers and brief notes on the contributors are included Kidnapping Cold Case Laura Scott, 2024-02-20 The key to staying alive lies buried in forgotten memories Ten years ago forensic artist Jacy Urban escaped her abductor with no memory of that night Now two teenage girls are missing and all signs indicate that the same kidnapper is back on the hunt When Jacy is attacked it's clear she's the assailant's next target Only Detective Cash Rawson is there to rescue her again Can Cash help Jacy recover her memories before she's silenced for good From Love Inspired Suspense Courage Danger Faith The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 1986 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature The Blind Man With Greater Insight Part 2 Vusi Mxolisi Zitha, 2021-04-24 Chaos overwhelms the individuals of the land when notorious youth that didn't know the history of the kingdom's wellbeing emerged In the process the prince burns his father alive due to greediness and impatience to take over the throne and impose his will However the blind man is next to be eliminated but before the thoughts of killing him crossed the prince's mind the blind man has already adapted an unbelievable and strange strategy to avoid being killed while he continues to dish out his wisdom to the people to save them from self destruction and the land from ignorance and arrogance Nevertheless will the blind man's adapted technique rescue him for good or will he be apprehended and killed Find out Rebirth: Vicious
