Shearing in the Riverina, New South Wales Rolf Boldrewood, 2020-09-28
Shearing commences to-morrow. These apparently simple words were spoken by Hugh Gordon, the manager of Anabanco station in the district of Riverina in the colony of New South Wales, one Monday morning in the month of August. The utterance had its importance to every member of a rather extensive CORPS DRAMATIQUE awaiting the industrial drama about to be performed. A low sand hill a few years since had looked out over a sea of grey plains covered partly with grass, partly with salsiferous bushes and herbs. Two or three huts built of the trunks of the pine and roofed with the bark of the box tree and a skeleton looking cattle yard with its high gallows, a rude timber stage whereon to hang slaughtered cattle alone broke the monotony of the plain ocean. A comparatively small herd of cattle, 2000 or 3000 found more than sufficient pasturage during the short winter and spring but were always compelled to migrate to mountain pastures when the swamps which alone in those days formed the water stores of the run were dried up. But two or three or at most half a dozen stockmen were ever needed for the purpose of managing the herd, so inadequate in number and profitable occupation to this vast tract of grazing country. But a little later one of the great chiefs of the wool producing interest, a shepherd king so to speak of shrewdness, energy and capital had seen, approved and purchased the lease of this waste kingdom. Almost at once as if by magic the scene changed. Great gangs of navvies appeared wending their way across the silent plain. Dams were made, wells were dug. Tons of fencing wire were dropped on the sand by the long line of teams which seemed never tired of arriving.

Sheep by thousands and tens of thousands began to come grazing and cropping up to the lonely sandhill now swarming with blacksmiths carpenters engineers fencers shepherds bullock drivers till the place looked like a fair on the borders of Tartary Meanwhile everything was moving with calculated force and cost under the reign of law The seeming expense was merely the economic truth of doing all the necessary work at once rather than by instalments One hundred men for one day rather than one man for one hundred days Results soon began to demonstrate themselves In twelve months the dams were full the wells sending up their far fetched priceless water the wire fences erected the shepherds gone and 17 000 sheep cropping the herbage of Anabanco Tuesday was the day fixed for the actual commencement of the momentous almost solemn transaction the pastoral Hegira so to speak as the time of most station events is calculated with reference to it as happening before or after shearing But before the first shot is fired which tells of the battle begun what raids and skirmishes what reconnoitring and vedette duty must take place Shearing in the Riverina, New South Wales Boldrewood Rolf, 2016-06-21 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy The Australasian Pastoralists' Review ,1893 Convegno celebrativo del centenario della nascita di Mauro Picone e di Leonida Tonelli (Roma, 6-9 maggio 1985). ,1903 The Miner's Right, A Tale of the Australian Goldfields Rolf Boldrewood, 2021-11-09 In The Miner's Right A Tale of the Australian Goldfields Rolf Boldrewood vividly captures the tumultuous spirit of the Australian gold rush immersing readers in the lives of miners seeking fortune amid the hardships of the 19th century The narrative characterized by its blend of realism and adventure unfolds in a richly detailed setting that reflects both the exuberance and desperation of gold fever Boldrewood's prose intricately weaves together the stories of its characters exploring themes of ambition camaraderie and the moral dilemmas faced by those drawn to the lure of gold all while providing a critical lens on the societal implications of this transformative period in Australian history Rolf Boldrewood born Thomas Alexander Browne was deeply influenced by his experiences in Australia's outback and as a pastoralist His firsthand knowledge of the goldfields and the diverse tapestry of life within them informed his writing offering authenticity and depth Boldrewood's background as both a settler and a keen observer of the human experience during a period of rapid social change in Australia compels readers to reflect on the motivations and aspirations of those in pursuit of wealth This compelling narrative is highly recommended for readers interested in historical fiction Australian literature or the human condition during times of upheaval Boldrewood's captivating storytelling invites readers to engage with the pulse of the goldfields making The Miner's Right not only an entertaining read but also an insightful examination of ambition struggle and community Littell's Living Age ,1871 THE CORNHILL MAGAZINE VOL.
