Sheer Fiction Volume 3:

Final Drafts Mark Seinfelt, 1999-12 Some of the greatest writers in the history of the art Hart Crane Ernest Hemingway Jerzy Kosinski Sylvia Plath Anne Sexton and Virginia Woolf all chose to silence themselves by suicide leaving their families and friends with heartbreak and the world of literature with gaping holes Their reasons for killing themselves when known were varied and quite often unreasonable Some were plagued by depression or self doubt and others by frustration and helplessness in a world they could neither change nor tolerate Profoundly moving and morbidly attractive Final Drafts is a necessary historical record biographical treatment and psychological examination of the authors who left this cruel world by their own hands either instantly or over long periods of relentless self destructive behavior It is also a devoted examination of references to suicide in literature both by those who took their own lives and those who decided to live Mark Seinfelt has selected many well known mostly fiction writers from those whose work dates to over a century ago when the medical community was ill equipped to deal with substance abuse and depression to more recent writers such as Kosinski Michael Dorris and Eugene Izzi who have left a puzzled literary community with a sad legacy Seinfelt reveals that many authors contemplated ending their lives in their work were obsessed with destroying themselves were unable in the case of the Holocaust to live with the fact that their contemporaries had been killed believed death to be a freedom from the horrors that forced them to create and sometimes were simply unable to withstand rejection or criticism of their work Other noted authors discussed in this volume include John Berryman Ambrose Bierce Harry Crosby John Davidson William Inge Randall Jarrell Arthur Koestler T E Lawrence Primo Levi Jack London Jay Anthony Lukas Tom McHale Yukio Mishima Henry de Montherlant Seth Morgan George Sterling Sara Teasdale Ernst Toller John Kennedy Toole Sergey Yesenin and many others

Collected Novels Volume 3 Paul Auster, 2008 In this continuing series Volume Three brings together a further quartet of Paul Auster's hugely influential novels In Timbuktu troubled Brooklyn poet saint Willy G Christmas embarks on one last great adventure in the company of his canine sidekick Mr Bones In The Book of Illusions a grieving professor finds his obsession with the true life story of a great silent comedian leading him into a mysterious shadow world In Oracle Night a novelist lately recovered from near fatal illness falls under the spell of a blank notebook that is seemingly the source of eerie premonitions and bewildering events And in The Brooklyn Follies an uncle and his nephew both wounded by past misfortunes wind up in the same Brooklyn neighbourhood and find their lives profoundly affected by a little girl who refuses to speak Highly varied yet instantly recognisable as the work of the same storyteller these four novels comprise the most recent chapter in the ongoing career of one of America's most enduring and fascinating writers

Historicizing Modernists Matthew Feldman, Anna Svendsen, Erik Tønning, 2021-06-17 Focussing upon both canonical figures such as Woolf Eliot Pound and Stein and emergent themes such as Christian modernism intermedial modernism queer Harlem Renaissance this volume brings together previously unseen materials from various archives to bear upon cutting edge interpretation of modernism It provides an overview of approaches to modernism via the employment of various types of primary source material correspondence manuscripts and drafts memoirs and production notes reading notes and marginalia and all manner of useful contextualising sources like news reports or judicial records While having much to say to literary criticism more broadly this volume is closely focused upon key modernist figures and emergent themes in light of the discipline's archival turn termed in a unifying introduction archivalism An essential ingredient separating the above recent tendency from a much older and better established new historicism in modernist studies at least is that the literary canon remains an important starting point Whereas new historicism is interested in history as represented and recorded in written documents and tends toward a parallel study of literature and non literary texts archival criticism tends toward recognised oftentimes canonical or critically lauded writers presented in Part 1 Sidestepping the vicissitudes of canon formation manuscript scholars tend to gravitate toward leading modernist authors James Joyce Ezra Pound Virginia Woolf Gertrude Stein T S Eliot and Samuel Beckett Part of the reason is obvious known authors frequently leave behind sizeable literary estates which are then acquired by research centres A second section then applies the same empirical methodology to key or emergent themes in the study of modernism including queer modernism spatial modernism little magazines and online finding aids structuring them and the role of faith and or emotions in the construction of modernism as we know it

The Novel: An Alternative History, 1600-1800 Steven Moore, 2013-08-29 Winner of the Christian Gauss Award for excellence in literary scholarship from the Phi Beta Kappa Society Having excavated the world's earliest novels in his previous book literary historian Steven Moore explores in this sequel the remarkable flowering of the novel between the years 1600 and 1800 from Don Quixote to America's first big novel an homage to Cervantes entitled Modern Chivalry This is the period of such classic novels as Tom Jones Candide and Dangerous Liaisons but beyond the dozen or so recognized classics there are hundreds of other interesting novels that appeared then known only to specialists Spanish picaresques French heroic romances massive Chinese novels Japanese graphic novels eccentric English novels and the earliest American novels These minor novels are not only interesting in their own right but also provide the context needed to appreciate why the major novels were major breakthroughs The novel experienced an explosive growth spurt during these centuries as novelists experimented with different forms and genres epistolary novels romances Gothic thrillers novels in verse parodies science fiction episodic road trips and family sagas along with quirky unclassifiable experiments in fiction that resemble contemporary avant garde works As in his previous volume Moore privileges the innovators and outriders those who kept the novel novel In the most comprehensive history of this period ever written Moore examines over 400 novels from around the world in a lively style that is as entertaining as it is informative Though written for a general audience The Novel An Alternative History also provides the scholarly apparatus required by the serious student of the period This sequel like its predecessor is a zestfully encyclopedic avidly opinionated and dazzlingly fresh history of the most elastic of literary forms
