What We Talk About When We Talk

About Books Leah Price,2019-08-20 Reports of the death of reading are greatly exaggerated Do you worry that you ve lost patience for anything longer than a tweet If so you re not alone Digital age pundits warn that as our appetite for books dwindles so too do the virtues in which printed bound objects once trained us the willpower to focus on a sustained argument the curiosity to look beyond the day s news the willingness to be alone The shelves of the world s great libraries though tell a more complicated story Examining the wear and tear on the books that they contain English professor Leah Price finds scant evidence that a golden age of reading ever existed From the dawn of mass literacy to the invention of the paperback most readers already skimmed and multitasked Print era doctors even forbade the very same silent absorption now recommended as a cure for electronic addictions The evidence that books are dying proves even scarcer In encounters with librarians booksellers and activists who are reinventing old ways of reading Price offers fresh hope to bibliophiles and literature lovers alike Winner of the Phi Beta Kappa Christian Gauss Award 2020

Talk of Treasure

Jane Carswell,2019-02-01 Jane Carswell began her working life at Pegasus Press shortly after its audacious publication of

Janet Frame's novel Owls Do Cry and years later she went on to write an award winning memoir called Under the Huang Jiao Tree. Two journeys in China. The road between one book and the other was paved with both delight and self doubt, the experience provoking Jane to write again this time about the transformation between the private interior worlds of reading and meditation and the noisy exterior world of publication between the books we read and treasure and the ones we write. With a wry and engaging tone she invites us into her world and its jostling demands of music, teaching, writing, friends and family, a succession of Chinese guests and travels to a world of meditation and monasteries. In the spirit of the works of Anne Lamott and Kate Llewellyn, the daily activities of Jane's life are bound to small breakthroughs and quiet illuminations. The author becomes a perfect companion to the reader as her life, writing and meditation coalesce in profound ways. But as the perfect ending to her own writing journey and understanding threatens to elude her, Jane journeys to where Janet Frame grew up to find the courage and wisdom to complete her own story. Lyrical and literary, Talk of Treasure is a compelling memoir about how to be a writer and more simply just how to be. Carswell's understated writing has a rare clarity and honesty. The Dominion Post. Her powers of description are so acute and tender. An enjoyable and fascinating account of the ways in which our passions enable us to become fully human. Ruth Fowler, Community Meditation teacher. Jane Carswell treads not only carefully but thoughtfully and originally. The Age. Number One Ladies' Detective Agency Alexander McCall Smith, 2005-11-01. Working in Gaborone, Botswana, sleuth Precious Ramotswe investigates several local mysteries including a search for a missing boy and the case of the clinic doctor with different personalities for different days of the week. Originally in paperback 25 000 first printing. The Crime Interviews: Volume One Len Wanner, 2013-12-05. If you're interested in learning about how to write, how to be a writer or about the writing life in general, what greater resource and pleasure than frank in depth interviews with best selling authors. In The Crime Interviews Volume One Len Wanner interviews Ian Rankin, Stuart MacBride, Karen Campbell, Neil Forsyth, Chris Brookmyre, Paul Johnston, Alice Thompson, Allan Guthrie, Louise Welsh. So much more than a collection of writing tips, The Crime Interviews Volume One is brimming with pithy, witty and sometimes just plain weird revelations. It provides a unique and unforgettable insight into how authors think and how they write. See also The Crime Interviews Volume Two and Volume Three. Two Ravens Press published a previous edition of this book in 2011 under the title Dead Sharp: Scottish Crime Writers On Country And Craft. What they're saying. This is fascinating reading and a real treat. A rare insight into the minds of a diverse group of crime writers writing in one genre, living in proximity but all with utterly different individual voices. Peter James, author of Dead Like You. Len Wanner is the perfect interrogator, subtle, accommodating and incisive and these interviews elicit many layers of deep, dark and vital intelligence. John Banville, author of The Sea. How to Raise an Elephant Alexander McCall Smith, 2020-11-24. In this latest installment in the cherished No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency series, Mma Ramotswe must balance family obligations with the growing needs of one of Charlie's pet projects. Precious Ramotswe loves her dependable old van. Yes, it sometimes takes a bit longer to get going now and it has developed some quirks over the years but it has always gotten the job done This time though the world and Charlie may be asking too much of it for when he borrows the beloved vehicle he returns it damaged And to make matters worse the interior seems to have acquired an earthy smell that even Precious can't identify But the olfactory issue is not the only mystery that needs solving Mma Ramotswe is confronted by a distant relative Blessing who asks for help with an ailing cousin The help requested is of a distinctly pecuniary nature which makes both Mr J L B Matekoni and Mma Makutsi suspicious And there is no peace at home either as the new neighbors are airing their marital grievances rather loudly Still Mma Ramotswe is confident that the solutions to all of these difficulties are there to be discovered as long as she is led by kindness grace and logic and can rely on the counsel of her friends and loved ones The Sunday
