Their Names Shall Live Forever More Trevor Jardine,2023-07-25 This book is a thorough and thought provoking account of the first year of existence of the 60th Australian Infantry Battalion Interspersed with Divisional Brigade and other Battalion s perspectives are the personal views of officers and other ranks relating to events and places Included in the story is an investigation into a previously untold account of a group of soldiers called the Needle Trench 10 who were killed by a single artillery shell on the 26th November 1916 For more than 100 years the identity of one of these soldiers buried in the Guards Cemetery at Lesboeuufs France has been lost to time A document filed in the archives of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission in Maidenhead England for over 100 years and only coming to light in 2021 has finally enabled this soldier s possible identity to be established Also revealed in the same document is the initial burial location of another soldier wounded by the same artillery shell and dying later that day whilst on his way to receive medical treatment Woven throughout the book are the human stories of the battalion's soldiers including biographies of those killed on the 26th November with many of the details provided by the descendants of these soldiers. The investigation details how a simple bookkeeping entry resulted in families and descendants of ten of the eleven soldiers who died on the 26th November being provided incorrect details concerning their deaths. This error has been perpetuated in official documents, publications online, resources and inscribed in stone since this time.

Eye Witness George Harmon Coxe, 2011-11-08. Doing a favor for an old friend gets Kent Murdock involved in a murder. Newspaper photographer Kent Murdock goes to Union City for the sake of Helen Farnsley, an old friend whose marriage is in trouble. Long ago he warned her against marrying Lee, and now that their life together has turned sour, he wants to help her escape it. But the trouble in Union City starts as soon as he gets to his hotel room. Behind the mirror, Murdock finds a diamond bracelet belonging to the room's previous resident, a talent agent named Harry, who returns a few minutes later to collect it. That night, Murdock sits down with Helen's husband, who asks for a few hours alone in the room to think. When Murdock returns, Lee has been murdered, and the police are looking for the room's owner. Kent doesn't stop to talk to the cops. It would be much easier to find the killer himself.
