Long way from home --- and other pony stories Rosemary Simmonds,1989 A Long Way Home Charles Granquist,2010-04-01 The son of a World War I veteran Charles Granquist was 17 when war was declared with Germany in 1939 He lied about his age joined the infantry and was sent to Egypt Like so many other young men at the time Granquist did not know what to expect All he really cared about was doing his duty and serving his country He never even contemplated his chances of becoming a prisoner of war he was there to fight and take prisoners Captured by the Germans in Greece Granquist was determined to continue carrying the war to his captors any way I could In his memoir A Long Way Home he describes his shame at becoming a POW and how he believed he had failed himself his mates and as a soldier He orchestrated a remarkable five escape attempts all of which ended unsuccessfully Yet Charles refused to give up determined to fulfil his duty as an Aussie Digger and make his own small contribution to the war effort His story takes the reader on the rollercoaster of escape recapture and 196 days of solitary confinement before his eventual return home with his Russian war bride Granquist's account of his wartime experiences adds another important chapter to the story of World War II POWs while showcasing the spirit humour persistence and ingenuity expected of an Aussie Digger A Long Way Home is tribute to one veteran's spirit and the mateship he still holds so dear today The Rural New-Yorker ,1920 Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine ,1895 Fenceline and Other Stories Jeremy Sayers,2014-07-03 Though it may be difficult to believe the eleven stories in this collection are based in truth Author Jeremy Sayers hails from a family of adventurers and farmers His father's family came to America in 1715 and settled in Virginia His mother's family arrived much later immigrants and migrants All together these people were coal miners blacksmiths and cowboys Most of all they were believers in whatever it was that let them survive one sunrise to another And they were storytellers Fenceline and Other Stories brings some of those tales to life Like the myths of ancient cultures the Greeks Hindus Hebrews and Native Americans these stories tell about a particular time and place But they also contain something timeless These stories give us reasons to laugh and to mourn And the characters in these tales teach us something about coping with strife as we share little parts of their lives Sunday stories, ed. by H. Aspden Hartley Aspden,1900 The Farmer's Weekly ,1927 Moore's Rural New Yorker ,1920 Rags and riches; a story of three poor boys (by E.H. Burrage). Edwin Harcourt Burrage,1890 New-Church Messenger ,1920

The Air Force Comptroller ,1985 Youth's Companion ,1877 The Sunday at Home ,1895 A Country Gentleman and his Family Mrs. Oliphant,2018-05-23 Reproduction of the original A Country Gentleman and his Family by Mrs Oliphant The Japan Daily Mail ,1873
