the 1960s and the global phenomenon surrounding four young men from Liverpool The names and the songs are well known but the why is more difficult to assess even with hindsight against the glare of the music industry's powerful myth making apparatus John Astley deploys his forensic skills as a sociologist to develop an original take on the kaleidoscopic landscape that gave birth to The Beatles phenomenon The reader is invited to take a peep back into the recent past at the post War years in England the trembling class structure of an exhausted society and the advent of global communications in the 1960s as the music industry and British culture is unmade and remade Put another way Why Don't We Do It In The Road is question that has gone unanswered for four decades until now John Astley is a writer and lecturer and is a frequent contributor to journals conferences and radio talks As a sociologist of culture he is also the author of three volumes of collected essays Liberation Domestication Culture Creativity and Professionalism Practice John Astley is currently working on Herbivores and Carnivores a timely investigation into cultural values in contemporary society
