,2020-08-31 The 21st century has seen a resurgence of authoritarian rule that often replicates past totalitarian systems but is more refined and nuanced in its strategies of repression and exploitation Entertainment media international travel and prosperity create the appearance of flourishing individual freedoms while our lives and thoughts are increasingly monitored and manipulated This disturbing trend raises the question of what exactly is meant by tyranny in its contemporary forms In Tyranny Lessons international writers from a dozen countries in Asia the Middle East Europe and the Americas address these challenges as only literary writing can through the perspective of lived experiences imagined futures and personal struggles Tyranny Lessons also features the photography of Danny Lyon the first photographer of the Student Non violent Coordinating Committee whose work documented the Civil Rights movement in the 1960s The Longman Anthology of Poetry Lynne McMahon, Averill Curdy, 2006 This major new poetry anthology blends the best selections from the poetic tradition with a wide range of contemporary works thematic casebooks and engaging essays that contextualize poetry century by century Featuring a breathtaking scope of poetry from the English speaking world this diverse collection brings unparalleled historical and cultural background to the study of poetry including discussions of the poetic conventions of the time and the poetic fingerprints of particular poets Introductions by respected scholars provide historical context and thematic casebooks provide insight into key literary movements to demonstrate to students how to write effectively about poetry Longman Anthology of British Literature David Damrosch, Kevin J. H. Dettmar, 2006 Contemporary Irish Poetry Irene De Angelis, 2016-04-30 The Japanese Effect in Contemporary Irish Poetry provides a stimulating original and lively analysis of the Irish Japanese literary connection from the early 1960s to 2007 While for some this may partly remain Oscar Wilde s mode of style this book will show that there is more of Japan in the work of contemporary Irish poets than a tinkling of china and tea into china Drawing on unpublished new sources Irene De Angelis includes poets from a broad range of cultural backgrounds with richly varied styles Seamus Heaney Derek Mahon Ciaran Carson and Paul Muldoon together with younger poets such as Sin ad Morrissey and Joseph Woods Including close readings of selected poems this is an indispensable companion for all those interested in the broader historical and cultural research on the effect of oriental literature in modernist and postmodernist Irish poetry Sonnets to Orpheus Rainer Maria Rilke, 2012-01-01 Sonnets to Orpheus is Rainer Maria Rilke's first and only sonnet sequence It is an undisputed masterpiece by one of the greatest modern poets translated here by a master of translation David Young Rilke revived and transformed the traditional sonnet sequence in the Sonnets Instead of centering on love for a particular person as has many other sonneteers he wrote an extended love poem to the world celebrating such diverse things as mirrors dogs fruit breathing and childhood Many of the sonnets are addressed to two recurrent figures the god Orpheus prototype of the poet and a young dancer whose death is treated elegiacally These ecstatic and meditative lyric poems are a kind of manual on how to approach the world how to understand and love it David Young s is the first most sensitive of the translations of this work superior to other translations in sound and sense He captures Rilke s simple concrete and colloquial language writing with a precision close to the original The Longman Anthology of British Literature ,1999 Poetic Culture Christopher Beach, 1999 In Poetic Culture Christopher Beach guestions the cultural significance of poetry both as a canonical system and as a contemporary practice By analyzing issues such as poetry s loss of audience the anthology wars of the 1950s and early 1960s the academic and institutional orientation of current poetry the poetry slam scene and the efforts to use television as a medium for presenting poetry to a wider audience Beach presents a sociocultural framework that is fundamental to an understanding of the poetic medium While calling for new critical methods that allow us to examine poetry beyond the limits of the accepted contemporary canon and beyond the terms in which canonical poetry is generally discussed and evaluated Beach also makes a compelling case for poetry and its continued vitality both as an aesthetic form and as a site for the creation of community and value Tradition and the Individual Poem Anne Ferry, 2001 A theoretical historical and critical inquiry this book looks at the assumptions anthologies are predicated on how they are put together the treatment of the poems in them and the effects their presentations have on their readers On the Poetry of Galway Kinnell Howard Nelson, 1987 Traces the evolution of critical responses to the work of poet Galway Kinnell Look Ma, "Hands" on Poetry Adele Steiner, 2008-05 The workshops in Look Ma Hands on Poetry are designed to help teachers and poets familiarize elementary through high school students with a variety of creative and fun ways to engage their imaginations and write poetry They do so by encouraging teachers and students to explore together the art of poetry i e the art of employing the five senses to capture experience in language The workshops also introduce young writers to a wide range of poets and the poetic techniques and styles that they have incorporated in their writing As a result when students complete a series of workshops from this book they will know how to write a poem They may enjoy reading more poetry too because they will have a solid understanding of how poetry works Finally there are exciting ideas in Look Ma Hands on Poetry for ways in which young writers can exhibit and perform their poetry. The workshops in this book run from 45 60 minutes with the time divided into three segments In the first the teacher reads and discusses poems that are examples of the types of poetry students will be writing In the second the teacher introduces the writing assignment and has students begin writing Finally students who finish poems are invited to share them in the remaining class time Because poetry is the art of capturing experience in language the workshops are structured around sight smell taste touch and sound Each of the workshops in the first five chapters is geared toward exploring one of these senses and the two later chapters contain workshops that require students to use all five to write their poems As a result workshops from each chapter may be used individually or in sequence to create one or twoweek poetry units that teachers and students can enjoy Workshops in the book include the Sleight of Hand and Animal Mask Workshops wherein students use metaphor simile and personification to create imagery in poems They use music and musical instruments to help them create sound and rhythm in the Native American Chant and Rap

Workshops and then they literally play with words to write Bingo and Multiple Voice Poems Young people have opportunities to express their feelings through poetry in the Blues Love Potion and Ode Workshops and finally they use their five senses simultaneously when writing Bubble and Rainbow Poems and when they interpret paintings sculpture and music in Echphrastic Poems The book s final section presents creative ideas for poetry readings books and displays Suggestions for readings include the Poetry Cafe which can incorporate any of the Coffee House Tea Room 1950 s Diner and or Greco Roman Garden venues discussed in this section Student poetry books and chapbooks complete with student art and photos are described here too along with plans for poetry rainbows sidewalks mobiles and poetry word collections
