After a Long Winter's Sleep Dr. Michael Bunch,2025-03-26 Over the course of our walk with the Lord we inevitably experience many ups and downs Eventually there will come a time when we feel remote from the Lord and even at times as if we have been abandoned by Him This is far from the truth As we struggle walk run stumble and fall He is right there at our side Even when the darkness surrounds us so completely that we can see nothing except the impending doom within the darkness He is there In those times He carries us when we feel that we cannot endure anymore He wraps us in His loving arms showers us with His Shekinah glory and bathes us in His compassion This gives us renewed strength to continue to struggle on to the ultimate victory These dark moments are not pleasant but they are essential to our growth into what the Lord has planned for us to become I as the author of this book hope that at least one or more of these short stories will touch you during one of the inevitable dark moments and remind you that you are a precious child of the Lord and He has you firmly by the hand as He guides you forward to the fulfillment of your walk in Christ

The Realist Hope Christopher J. Insole,2006 Taking into consideration analytical continental historical post modern and contemporary thinkers Insole provides a powerful defence of a realist construal of religious discourse Insole argues that anti realism tends towards absolutism and hubris Cutting through the tired and well rehearsed debates in this area Insole provides a fresh perspective on approaches influenced by Wittgenstein Kant and apophatic theology The defence of realism offered is unusual in being both analytically precise and theologically sensitive with a view to some of the wider cultural ethical and political implications of the debate
