and transnational feminisms Does art by the subaltern fulfill the liberatory potential that critics have ascribed to it What other possibilities does political art offer Together these essays sort through the aesthetics of daily life to build a thesis that reflects the desire of black artists and cultures to remake themselves and their world Understanding Self-Worth

Dawna Daigneault, Chris Brown, 2025-09-08 Understanding Self Worth A Guide to Worth Conscious Theory and Psychotherapeutic Practice is a guide for psychotherapists confounded by the struggle of working with clients who present with a pervasive pattern of denied self worth When self worth is perceived as conditional or denied altogether clients may become complicit in creating a lost worth story the story they tell that keeps them denying their own worth The denial may include generational abusive and or intrusive injunctions that go against their lived truth Psychotherapists will come away from this book with a deep understanding of the importance of attending to the degree of trauma experienced when the client s self worth is separated from their individual truth Moreover where there is worth based trauma the psychotherapist will learn models both for helping clients gently and honestly reestablish a worthy and true sense of self and for consciously guiding clients toward recovery of human worth as a birthright Looking with Robert Gardner Rebecca Meyers, William Rothman, Charles Warren, 2016-08-01 Assesses the range and magnitude of Robert Gardner s achievements as a filmmaker photographer writer educator and champion of independent cinema During his lifetime Robert Gardner 1925 2014 was often pigeonholed as an ethnographic filmmaker then criticized for failing to conform to the genre s conventions conventions he radically challenged With the release of his groundbreaking film Dead Birds in 1963 Gardner established himself as one of the world s most extraordinary independent filmmakers working in a unique border area between ethnography the essay film and poetic experimental cinema Richly illustrated Looking with Robert Gardner assesses the range and magnitude of Gardner s achievements not only as a filmmaker but also as a still photographer writer educator and champion of independent cinema The contributors give critical attention to Gardner s most ambitious films such as Dead Birds 1963 New Guinea Rivers of Sand 1975 Ethiopia and Forest of Bliss 1986 India as well as lesser known films that equally exemplify his mode of seeking anthropological understanding through artistic means They also attend to his films about artists including his self depiction in Still Journey On 2011 to his roots in experimental film and his employment of experimental procedures and to his support of independent filmmakers through the Harvard Film Study Center and the television series Screening Room which provided an opportunity for numerous important film and video artists to present and discuss their work This book is a monumental fearless and insightful contribution of critique that looks both with and at Gardner s works as a whole Catherine Summerhayes author of Google Earth Outreach and Activism Looking with Robert Gardner introduces new and exciting voices into the dialogue about the renowned ethnographic and documentary filmmaker The book contains very close readings of many of his films and suggests fresh approaches for analyzing those as well as ethnographic films in general Ilisa Barbash coeditor of The Cinema of Robert Gardner How to Integrate Spirituality in Psychotherapeutic Practice

Agneta Schreurs,2019-12-09 How to Integrate Spirituality in Psychotherapeutic Practice Working with Spiritually Minded Clients enables mental health professionals to acquire the skills they need to diagnose and treat religious or spiritually minded clients Research and practical experience show that religion and spirituality of clients can be very important in psychotherapy Given the great diversity in the area of religion and spirituality it is not easy to understand the complicated interconnections between the psychological complaints and the spirituality and or religion of a client By providing an understanding of various types of spirituality as well as theory case histories and clinical information using DSM diagnoses this book will help therapists to design effective interventions It takes account of the plurality in psychotherapeutic methods as well as in spiritual religious views practices and use of terms How to Integrate Spirituality in Psychotherapeutic Practice is directed to a readership of practitioners who have decided to integrate the religious spiritual dimension into their practice It primarily addresses psychotherapists and mental health counsellors practising in general mental health residential units and day to day consultation clinics as well as religious therapists pastoral psychotherapists pastoral counsellors and the clergy

Tourism Experiences and Animal Consumption Carol Kline,2018-01-17 This book provides an interdisciplinary discussion of animals as a source of food within the context of tourism It focuses on a range of ethical issues associated with the production and consumption of animal foods highlighting the different ways in which animals are valued and utilised within different cultural and economic contexts This book brings together food studies of animals with tourism and ethics forming an important contribution to the wider conversation of human animal studies

Selfless Minds Monima Chadha,2023 Selfless Minds offers a new interpretation of no self metaphysics in Vasubandhu s Abhidharmakosa Bhasya Monima Chadha reads Vasubandhu as defending not only eliminativism about self but also about persons and illusionism about the sense of self and all kinds of self representation This radical no self thesis presents several challenges for Abhidharma Buddhist philosophy of mind Even if we then grant that there is no self we are left with deeper questions about the sense of self or self representations implicated in our ordinary everyday experience and thought about the world and ourselves And if we grant that there are no persons questions remain about the status of our person related concerns and interpersonal practices Selfless Minds answers these questions on behalf of the Abhidharma Buddhist The first part of the book defends the hypothesis that we can salvage much of our experience and thought without implicating self representations The second part of the book examines the revisionary implications of the no person metaphysics Some of these seem unpalatable if not downright absurd This she argues give us reason to re evaluate both the Abhidharma metaphysics and our ordinary person related practices and concerns in light of each other by using some sort of wide reflective equilibrium Selfless Minds is a contribution to cross cultural philosophy that studies the nature of selfless minds from a place at the crossroads of different traditions and disciplines philosophy in the traditional Buddhist and contemporary Western traditions and contemporary cognitive sciences
