Walking Forward, Looking Back Dinah Latham, 2014-10-28 The book tells the story of a retired district nurse and midwife reflecting on her life whilst walking with her close companion Harriet the dog It is a touchingly honest work written straight from the heart The reader will both laugh and cry as the author recounts many moving stories of patients cared for in 1960s London The writings so patently contrast care in the community then and now that it becomes impossible not to regret the passing of a time when nursing was seen as a vocation when nurses were proud to serve Divorce and single parenthood accompany her career journey while living alone escorts her into retirement It is then that fortune takes a hand or rather a paw and brings Harriet the dog into her life This may just have been the coming together of chance and good timing but destiny or happy accident it was certainly a blessing It was her need to be taken on daily walks that finds our author evoking memories randomly flicking through a lifetime of unwritten diaries Together they share their walks taking the reader through the changing seasons of the Chiltern countryside while also travelling a new pathway one with an unfamiliar landscape a one way journey into growing old This is a voyage of discovery one that promises many unexpected new experiences not the least of which is their most recent pastime sheepherding

Encountering Truth Pope Francis, 2015-06-16 Experience the morning homilies of Pope Francis and witness how for twelve years he changed the life of the Catholic Church Shortly after seven in the morning Pope Francis would give a brief homily in the little Vatican chapel of Saint Martha in front of an audience that was always different gardeners office workers nuns priests and journalists It was a set appointment and in some ways a revolutionary innovation where a pope speaks to everyone off the cuff without any written text as he would have done as a parish priest Encountering Truth is a collection of highlights from these homilies Along with summaries by Radio Vaticana who recorded and transcribed the homilies and commentary by Father Antonio

Spadaro SJ these reflections provide moments of inspiration simplicity and a glimpse into the papal world very few ever get to experience

In discrete disclosures joined with the intricacy of a spider's web, James Galvin depicts the hundred year history of a meadow in the arid mountains of the Colorado-Wyoming border. Galvin describes the seasons, the weather, the wildlife and the few people who do not possess but are themselves possessed by this terrain. In so doing, he reveals an experience that is part of our heritage and mythology. For Lyle Ray, Clara and App, the struggle to survive on an independent family ranch is a series of blameless failures and unacclaimed successes that illuminate the Western character. The Meadow evokes a sense of place that can be achieved only by someone who knows it intimately. Cast Your Bread Warren Ravenscroft, 2015-04-14 In the first book, Devotional Talks for the Busy Leader, and the second book, Bible Studies for the Busy Leader, the author sought to bring easy reading material to those who chose to explore the word of God. Again in this book, easy reading material has been produced in essence making God's word easier to understand. More Devotional Talks and More Bible Studies have been added to those already produced to take those who seek further enlightenment on a journey only God can make happen through the Holy Spirit. As with all the previous writings, what is done with the revelations revealed is the most important issue we can embrace in our spiritual lives. It is all about God and nothing about the individual. To those who seek with all their heart, will be rewarded by God, revealing secrets to them through the Holy Spirit in his time and at his pace. It is a learning and growing process. Through these easy read talks and studies, the author hopes to awaken a keener interest in the word of life Our spiritual life and the teaching combined should take us to heights we would never have expected for those who are of the called While much happens in our lives the author has shared his own life and how God has worked through many channels to bring the revealed word into his life While his journey or walk has always been about trust in a God to direct his life the way God chose to do this has in hindsight left the author with a sense of Why me As you read may you to experience the riches of God s word as he reveals himself to your own heart Jet ,1986-01-13 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Cellular Daniel D.
