Publishers Weekly: A fresh authentic coming-of-age story about a rebellious Arab American girl who finds herself in the middle of an uprising. On her quest for love and adventure on the streets of Cairo, she finds that revolution is everywhere, including in herself. Miriam just wants to fit in. That's not easy when she's the only Egyptian at her high school and her parents are super traditional. So when she sneaks into a party that gets busted, Mariam knows she's in trouble, big trouble. Convinced she needs more discipline and to reconnect with her roots, Mariam's parents send her to Cairo to stay with her grandmother, her sattu. But Mariam's strict sattu and the country of her heritage are nothing like she imagined, challenging everything Mariam once believed. As Mariam searches for the courage to be true to herself, a teen named Asmaa calls on the people of Egypt to protest their president. The country is on the brink of revolution, and now, in her own way, so is Mariam. So Long Been Dreaming Nalo Hopkinson, 2004 So Long Been Dreaming: Postcolonial Science Fiction Fantasy is an anthology of original new stories by leading African, Asian, South Asian, and Aboriginal authors, as well as North American and British writers of colour. Stories of imagined futures abound in Western writing. Writer and editor Nalo Hopkinson notes that the science fiction/fantasy genre speaks so much about the experience of being alienated but contains so little writing by alienated people themselves. It's an oversight that Hopkinson and Mehan aim to correct with this anthology. The wealth of postcolonial literature has included many who have written insightfully about their pasts and presents. With So Long Been Dreaming, they creatively address their futures. With an introduction by Hugo and Nebula Award winner Samuel R. Delany. Contributors to So Long Been Dreaming are Opal Palmer Adisa, Celu Amberstone, Ven Begamudre, Tobias S. Buckell, Wayne Compton, Andrea Hairston, Maya Khankhoje, Tamai Kobayashi, Larissa Lai, Karin Lowachee, Deborah Major, Suzette Mayr, Carole McDonnell, Nnedi Okorafor, Mbachau Eden Robinson, Nisi Shawl, Vandana Singh, Sheree R.
