Staats,1999-04-01 Former debutante Margaret Hunter Bridges finds the social skills and personal values she has so carefully cultivated throughout her life becoming increasingly irrelevant in the face of her husband s infidelity and her daughter s accidental death List of the Photographs and Photographic Negatives Relating to the War for the Union United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means. Subcommittee on Oversight,2001 The Postsouthern Sense of Place in Contemporary Fiction Martyn Bone,2014-01-13 For generations southern novelists and critics have grappled with a concept that is widely seen as a trademark of their literature a strong attachment to geography or a sense of place In the 1930s the Agrarians accorded special meaning to rural life particularly the farm in their definitions of southern identity For them the South seemed an organic and rooted region in contrast to the North where real estate development and urban sprawl evoked a faceless raw capitalism By the end of the twentieth century however economic and social forces had converged to create a modernized South How have writers responded to this phenomenon Is there still a sense of place in the South or perhaps a distinctly postsouthern sense of place Martyn Bone innovatively draws upon postmodern thinking to consider the various perspectives that southern writers have brought to the concept of place and to look at its fate in a national and global context He begins with a revisionist assessment of the Agrarians who failed in their attempts to turn their proprietary ideal of the small farm into actual policy but whose broader rural aesthetic lived on in the work of neo Agrarian writers including William Faulkner and Eudora Welty By the 1950s adherence to this aesthetic was causing southern writers and critics to lose sight of the social reality of a changing South Bone turns to more recent works that do respond to the impact of capitalist spatial development on the South and on the nation generally including that self declared international city Atlanta Close readings of novels by Robert Penn Warren Walker Percy Richard Ford Anne Rivers Siddons Tom Wolfe and Toni Cade Bambara illuminate evolving ideas about capital land labor and class while introducing southern literary studies into wider debates around social cultural and literary geography Bone concludes his remarkably rich book by considering works of Harry Crews and Barbara Kingsolver that suggest the southern sense of place may be not only post Agrarian or postsouthern but also

Wright,2025-01-16 When you live in a poor neighborhood you are living in an area where you have poor schools When you have poor schools you have poor teachers When you have poor teachers you get a poor education With a poor education you can only work on a poor paying job and that poor paying job enables you to live again in a poor neighborhood So it s a very vicious cycle Malcolm X Malcolm s X quote rings true to the core today as my six days of incarceration at Fulton County s Jail on Rice Street allowed me to witness the historical widely reported medical neglect malnourished meals overcrowding violence abuse and unsanitary conditions Most importantly I was blessed to hear the stories of Black youths and alleged gang member inmates who all seemingly have one thing in common they all live in poor neighborhoods Ten Black inmates died in 2023 from the above mentioned reasons four occurred in August alone After being asked Is Donald Trump and the Republican Party racists My attempts to educate my younger cellmate referred to as Nephew and me widely known in urban culture as OGEE on the origin of the Civil Rights Movement starting with Frederick Douglas undoubtedly considered the Father of the movement My 22 year old cellmate who s the son of a Chief of Police replied Who is Frederick Douglass This Is Crazy Fulton County s Systemic Institutionalization of Atlanta s Black Youths not only reveals the horrid conditions and violence at the jail but also offers an informative factual historical account of the Civil Rights Movement throughout history shedding light in attempt to hold elected local officials politicians commissioners sheriff departments and District attorneys accountable for the conditions we are in Angel, Falling Larry Patrick Shriner,2008-02-27 Young women disappear with depressing regularity in the Southern city of Atlanta Georgia Unfortunately no one really cares if they ever show up again Private detective Bennett Cole knows this better than most He s had his share of tough cases that didn t turn out so well and he d rather not take this latest one on But when the friend of a missing young woman named Angel asks him to find her Cole ignores his instincts and accepts the job It s a case that will take Cole from Atlanta s seamy underbelly to the playgrounds of the rich and famous on the beaches of Florida And in his search he finds far more than he bargained for violence drugs and Angel a woman who is not at all what she seems With the help of a beautiful massage therapist Cole confronts unlikely suspects encounters deceit in the wealthy enclaves of West Florida and Atlanta and even stumbles upon a murder or two As the mounting tension and danger nearly drag Cole to his knees he realizes that his quest for the truth about Angel may send him straight to the depths of hell Hard hitting and action packed Angel Falling will draw you into Cole s quest for the truth The End of the Circle A.G.
