Lord Of The Last Days Visions Of The Year 1000:

The Lord of the Last Days Homero Aridjis, 1995 In 10th Century Spain the conflict between Christians and Moors through the eyes of twin brothers Born to a caliph and his concubine the boys paths divide in childhood one to become a Christian monk the other a Saracen warrior then come together in a battle on opposing sides By the author of 1492 Utopian

Dreams, Apocalyptic Nightmares Miguel López-Lozano, 2008 Utopian Dreams Apocalyptic Nightmares traces the history of utopian representations of the Americas first on the part of the colonizers who idealized the New World as an earthly paradise and later by Latin American modernizing elites who imagined Western industrialization cosmopolitanism and consumption as a utopian dream for their independent societies Carlos Fuentes Homero Aridjis Carmen Boullosa and Alejandro Morales utilize the literary genre of dystopian science fiction to elaborate on how globalization has resulted in the alienation of indigenous peoples and the deterioration of the ecology This book concludes that Mexican and Chicano perspectives on the past and the future of their societies constitute a key site for the analysis of the problems of underdevelopment social injustice and ecological decay that plague today's world Whereas utopian discourse was once used to justify colonization Mexican and Chicano writers now deploy dystopian rhetoric to interrogate projects of modernization contributing to the current debate on the global expansion of capitalism The narratives coincide in expressing confidence in the ability of Latin American and U S Latino popular sectors to claim a decisive role in the implementation of enhanced measures to guarantee an ecologically sound ethnically diverse and just society for the future of the Americas The

BOOK JACKET Ghost Fishing Melissa Tuckey, 2018-04-01 Ghost Fishing is the first anthology to focus solely on poetry with an eco justice bent A culturally diverse collection entering a field where nature poetry anthologies have historically lacked diversity this book presents a rich terrain of contemporary environmental poetry with roots in many cultural traditions Eco justice poetry is poetry born of deep cultural attachment to the land and poetry born of crisis Aligned with environmental justice activism and thought eco justice poetry defines environment as the place we work live play and worship This is a shift from romantic notions of nature as a pristine wilderness outside ourselves toward recognition of the environment as home a source of life health and livelihood Ghost Fishing is arranged by topic at key intersections between social justice and the environment such as exile migration and dispossession war food production human relations to the animal world natural resources and extraction environmental disaster and cultural resilience and resistance This anthology seeks to expand our consciousness about the interrelated nature of our experiences and act as a starting point for conversation about the current state of our environment Contributors include Homero Aridjis Brenda Cárdenas Natalie Diaz Camille T Dungy Martín Espada Ross Gay Joy Harjo Brenda Hillman Linda Hogan Philip Metres Naomi Shihab Nye Tolu Ogunlesi Wang Ping Patrick Rosal Tim Seibles Danez Smith Arthur Sze Eleanor Wilner and Javier Zamora Latin American Novels of the Conquest Kimberle S. López, 2002 The fictionalized explorers and conquistadors represented in this corpus all identify with certain aspects of Amerindian culture significantly those elements that are most distinct from European culture such as cannibalism and human sacrifice but also feel the need to distance themselves from these others in order to protect their own European cultural identity In most cases the conquistadors themselves are represented as outsiders within the enterprise of imperialism due to ethnic religious or sexual differences from the norm This representation turns the gaze inward toward the other within European culture underscoring the complex origins of Latin American cultures in the violent encounter between the Amerindians and the conquistadors By examining these issues López's Latin American Novels of the Conquest illuminates the ways in which Latin American novelists used their literary imaginations to embody their ambivalence regarding their own transcultural heritage as children of both the colonized and the colonizer BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Last 10 1/2 Years. Kenneth Allan Clark, 2021-06-19 Will it happen in our time Author Kenneth Allan Clark takes us through his comprehensive study of biblical prophecy to present what the Bible tells us about events to happen here on earth during the last ten and a half years before the second coming of Jesus Christ Regardless of whether Jesus Christ returns in 10 years 100 or 1 000 years we can expect certain things to happen in the last ten and a half years before His return Published by Just Restoration Online 2021 Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions Hurricanes and Carnivals Lee Gutkind,2007 In Mexico writes Ilan Stavans in the introduction to this provocative new collection on Mexican culture and politics the essay is embraced as passionately as a sport While the American essay may be personal and confessional or erudite and academic it is presumed to be truthful By contrast the Mexican essay pushes the boundaries between fact and fiction as writers seek to make their opinions heard in literary journals in newspapers and even on cereal boxes What is real and what isn't in a Mexican essay only God knows concludes Stavans In Hurricanes and Carnivals Lee Gutkind a pioneer in the teaching of creative nonfiction brings together fifteen essays by Mexican Mexican American and Latin American writers that push the boundaries of style and form showing that navigating truth is anything but clear cut Although creative nonfiction is widely thought to be an American art form this collection proves otherwise By blending fact and fiction story and fantasy history and mythology these writers and others push the bounds of the essay to present a vision of Mexico rarely seen from this side of the border Addressing topics that include immigration politics ecology violence family and sexuality they take literary license on a whirlwind adventure C M Mayo shows us Mexico City as seen through the eyes of her pug Picadou Juan Villoro examines modern Mexico through the lens of demography Homero Aridjis uses the plight of nesting sea turtles to document a slowly changing Mexican attitude toward natural resources and Sam Quinones documents the decline of beauty queen addiction in Mazatlán and tells us about the flower festivals where according to lore only two things matter hurricanes and carnivals For readers interested in a literary view of contemporary Mexico as well as students of the creative nonfiction genre this volume is essential
