Loss, Change and Bereavement in Palliative Care Pam Firth, Gill Luff, David Oliviere, 2005 This text brings together contemporary thinking on loss and bereavement. It draws on international research practice and individual stories from people struggling to understand the meaning of loss including work with bereaved children, parents, families and adults.

Art Therapy and Cancer Care Diane Waller, Caryl Sibbett, 2005-07 Inspired by the experiences of art therapists who have pioneered work with people with cancer, this text looks at the work in its institutional context, demonstrating the importance for the art therapy service of being understood, supported and valued at managerial level. Compassion-Based Approaches in Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, Andy H. Y. Ho, 2022-12-20 Compassion Based Approaches in Loss and Grief introduces clinicians to a wide array of strategies and frameworks for engaging clients throughout the loss experience, particularly when those experiences have a protracted course. In the book, clinicians and researchers from around the world and from a variety of fields explore ways to cultivate compassion and how to implement compassion-based clinical practices specifically designed to address loss, grief and bereavement. Students, scholars and mental health and healthcare professionals will come away from this important book with a deepened understanding of compassion-based approaches and strategies for enhancing distress tolerance, maintaining focus and identifying the clinical interventions best suited to clients' needs. Grief and Loss

Across the Lifespan, Second Edition Judith L. M. McCoyd, Carolyn Ambler Walter, 2015-09-11 The book addresses grieving patterns and intervention strategies according to the life trajectory and provides clinical intervention tools and strategies for coping according to the developmental stage of an individual. It incorporates losses beyond death loss with special focus on losses related to maturational development. The second edition reflects new research that has clarified and underscored the value of theories examined in the first edition, particularly in the areas of continued bonds, disenfranchised grief and ambiguous grief. It describes how grieving is influenced by biological responses to stress, psychological responses to loss and social norms and support networks. publisher Living with Grief Kenneth J. Doka, 2002 As this book shows us, when a loved one dies, we search for meaning in our own lives while struggling to hold onto memories of a precious life lost. O says Senator John Breaux in his introduction to this book. The 29 chapters of this book address the struggles, concerns and issues faced by the bereaved and those who care for them. Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan Judith L. M.
