Toronto's Visual Legacy Steve MacKinnon, Karen Teeple, Michele Dale, 2010-04-30 Twenty five fascinating images that offer a 360 panorama of the Toronto's downtown in 1856-57 mark the beginning of the use of photographs to document Toronto's growth its achievements its great civic works and its citizenry Since 1856 the City of Toronto has been commissioning photographs to document and to promote it This book published to celebrate the 175th anniversary of the city's incorporation brings together more than 100 of these images selected by city archivists from their collection of hundreds of thousands Waterworks roads and bridges many of them familiar landmarks today are seen as they are being built The Bloor Street Viaduct the R C Harris water filtration plant and the old and new city halls are all celebrated in these images Toronto's citizens are also captured in these photographs going about their affairs on the street as proud workers or as spectators at public events At times in an effort to raise public concern about poverty and poor housing conditions city photographers have documented conditions for residents in low income neighbourhoods Some of these photographs are included here in an impressive series of poignant images In the past fifty years as Toronto has grown into the cosmopolitan metropolis it is now city photographers have recorded the construction of key projects like the Yonge Street subway the new City Hall and the CN Tower while documenting major public events and celebrations This book offers a visual overview of Toronto's history and at the same time documents attitudes and values expressed by City officials from 1857 to the present

Milton's Italy Catherine Martin, 2016-12-01 This book joins a growing trend toward transnational literary studies and revives a venerable tradition of Anglo-Italian scholarship centering on John Milton Correcting misperceptions that have diminished the international dimensions of his life and work it broadly surveys Milton's Italianate studies travels poetics politics and religious convictions While his debts to Machiavelli and other classical republicans are often noted few contemporary critics have explored the Italian sources of his anti papal anti episcopal and anti formalist religious outlook Relying on Milton s own testimony this book explores its roots in Dante Petrarch Ariosto and that great Venetian enemy of the pope Paolo Sarpi thereby correcting a recent tendency to make native English contexts dominate his development This tendency is partly due to a mistaken belief that Italy was in steep decline during and after Milton s travels of 1638 1639 the period immediately before he produced his prose critiques of the English Church its canon law and its censorship Yet these were also fundamentally Italian issues that he skillfully adapted to meet contemporary English needs a practice enabled by his extraordinarily positive experience of the Italian language cities academies and music the latter of which ultimately influenced Milton s operatic drama Samson Agonistes Besides republicanism and theology radical doctrines of free grace and free will equally strong influences treated here include Italian Neoplatonism cosmology and romance epic By making these traditions his own Milton became what John Steadman once described as an Italianate Englishman whose classical literary tastes and critical orientation were to a considerable extent molded by Italian critics 1976 a view that is fully credited and updated here Canadian Policy Toward Khrushchev's Soviet Union Jamie Glazov, Teleglobe

Raoul-Dandurand Chair of Strategic and Diplomatic Studies, 2002 Glazov s new assessment of Western policies toward Khrushchev s Russia is critical to our understanding of present day Russia since Gorbachev s democratization which led to the disintegration of the Soviet Union in 1991 had its origins in the Khrushchev thaw The Canadian Entomologist, 1873 Light and Death Judith H. Anderson, 2017-01-02 Light figures being darkness death Bridging mathematical science semantics rhetoric grammar and major poems Judith H Anderson seeks to negotiate writings from multiple disciplines in the shared terms of poesis and figuration rather than as cultural opposites Analogy a type of metaphor has always been the connector of the known to the unknown the sensible to the infinite Anderson s study moves from the figuration of light and death to the history of analogy and its pertinence to light in physics and metaphysics from Kepler to Donne Spenser and Milton Topics proliferate creativity optics the relation of literature to science the methodology of thought and argument and the processes of narrative discovery and interpretation Making Space for Indigenous Feminism, 2nd Edition Joyce Green, 2020-07-10T00:00:00Z The first edition of Making Space for Indigenous Feminism proposed that Indigenous feminism was a valid and indeed essential theoretical and activist position and introduced a roster of important Indigenous feminist contributors This new edition builds on the success and research of the first and provides updated and new chapters that cover a wide range of some of the most important issues facing Indigenous peoples today violence against women recovery of Indigenous self determination racism misogyny and decolonization Specifically new chapters deal with Indigenous resurgence feminism amongst the Sami and in Aboriginal Australia neoliberal restructuring in Oaxaca Canada s settler racism and sexism and missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls in Canada Written by Indigenous feminists and allies this book provides a powerful and original intellectual and political contribution demonstrating that feminism has much to offer Indigenous women and all Indigenous peoples in their struggles against oppression Osgoode Hall John David Honsberger, John Honsberger, 2004-09 Osgoode Hall is a national monument and one of Canada's architectural treasures. Of the many public buildings erected in pre-Confederation Canada, it best encapsulates the diverse stylistic forces that shaped public buildings of its era. The gated lawns, the grandly Venetian rotunda, the ornate courtroom, the portrait-lined walls, and the stained glass windows evoke a venerable dignity to which few Canadian institutions can aspire. It has been the seat of the Law Society of Upper Canada since 1832 and of several of the Superior Courts of the province for almost as long. It has become a symbol of the legal tradition not only in Ontario but throughout Canada and beyond Global Milton and Visual Art Angelica Duran, Mario Murgia, 2021-03-18 Global Milton and Visual Art showcases the aesthetic appropriation and reinterpretation of the works and legend of the early modern English poet and politician John Milton in diverse eras, regions, and media: book illustrations, cinema, digital reworkings, monuments, painting, sculpture, shieldry, and stained glass. It innovates an inclusive approach to Milton's literary art, especially his masterpiece Paradise Lost, in global contemporary aesthetics via intertextual and interdisciplinary relations. The fifteen purposefully brief chapters, 103 illustrations, and 64 supplemental web images reflect the great richness of the topics and the diverse experiences and expertise of the contributors. Part I: Panoramas provides overviews and key contexts. Part II: Cameos offers different perspectives of the varied afterlives of the most widely circulating illustrations of Paradise Lost, those by Gustave Doré. Part III: Textual Close-ups focuses on a rich variety of book illustrations from centuries old elite engravings to a twenty-first century graphic novel. Part IV: A Prospect beyond Books explores visual media outside of books that manifest powerful connections, direct and indirect, with Milton's works and legend The World Almanac and Encyclopedia, 1899 Two Billion Trees and Counting John Bacher, 2011-07-13 Shortlisted for the 2012 Speaker's Book Award Edmund Zavitz, 1875-1968 rescued Ontario from the ravages of increasingly more powerful floods, erosion, and deadly fires. Wastelands were taking over many hectares of once flourishing farmlands and towns. Sites like the Oak Ridges Moraine were well on their way to becoming a dust bowl, and all because of extensive deforestation. Zavitz held the positions of chief forester of Ontario, deputy minister of forests, and director of reforestation. His first pilot reforestation project was in 1905, and since then Zavitz has educated the public and politicians about the need to protect Ontario forests. By the mid-1940s, conservation authorities, provincial nurseries, forestry stations, and bylaws protecting trees were in place. Land was being restored. Just a month before his death, the one-billionth tree was planted by Premier John Robarts. Some two billion more would follow. As a result of Zavitz's work, the Niagara Escarpment, once a wasteland, is now a UNESCO World Biosphere. Recognition of the ongoing need to plant trees to protect our future continues as the legacy of Edmund Zavitz The Railway King of Canada R. B. Fleming, 2007-10-01 During the first two decades of this century, Sir William Mackenzie was one of Canada's best-known entrepreneurs. He spearheaded some of the largest and most technologically advanced projects undertaken in Canada; he built a business empire that stretched from Montreal to

British Columbia and to Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo in Brazil It included gas electric telephone and transit utilities railroads hotels and steamships as well as substantial coal mining whaling and timber interests But when he died in 1923 his estate was virtually bankrupt as a result of the dramatic collapse of his Canadian Northern Railway during the First World War In a business biography intended as much for general readers as for a scholarly audience Fleming offers a revisionist perspective on Mackenzie He dispels the simplistic approach of those historians and journalists who have depicted Mackenzie and his partner Sir Donald Mann as melodramatic crooks who could have stepped out of the pages of Huckleberry Finn Charmed Circle Mel R. Freese,1997-01-01 Since 1901 over 5 600 pitchers have toed the rubber in baseball s major leagues Of them only 369 have won 20 or more games in a single season Only 168 of those to win 20 games have been able to repeat the feat further illustrating how difficult it is to reach that plateau Season by season this reference work documents major league 20 game winners from 1901 through the 1996 season including the Federal League 1914 1915 A brief synopsis of each pitcher s season is provided along with his complete pitching statistics Some of the pitchers who won 20 games were all time greats but interestingly many were journeymen who had one great season The work also shows the changes in the game from the deadball era when pitching dominated to the present when the lively ball has made the 20 game winner even rarer than before Casa Loma Matthew M. Reeve,Michael Windover,2023-09-01 Leading architect E J Lennox designed Casa Loma for the flamboyant Sir Henry Pellatt and Mary Lady Pellatt as an enormous castellated mansion that overlooked the booming metropolis of Toronto The first scholarly book dedicated to this Canadian landmark Casa Loma situates the famous house on the hill within Toronto s architectural urban and cultural history Casa Loma was not only an outsized home for the self appointed Lord Toronto but a statement of Canada s association with empire an assertion of the country s British legacy During and after the Pellatts occupation Casa Loma was a major landmark and it has since infiltrated the iconography and collective memory of the metropolis The reception of Casa Loma variously loved and abhorred by Torontonians reflects many of Toronto s major aspirations and anxieties about itself as a modern city Across ten chapters this book charts the history of Casa Loma from the purchase of the estate atop Davenport Ridge in 1903 and its construction from 1906 through to its sale and the dispersal of its contents in 1924 its subsequent life as a hotel and finally its transformation into one of the city s major entertainment venues Casa Loma brings to light a wealth of hitherto unpublished archival images and documentation of the house s visual and material culture weaving together a textured account of the design use and life of this unique building over the course of the twentieth century The Cambridge Companion to Milton Dennis Danielson,1999-07-22 Introduces readers to the scope of Milton s work the richness of its historical relations and the range of current approaches to it Science, Literature and Rhetoric in Early Modern England David Burchell,2017-03-02 These essays throw new light on the complex relations between science literature and rhetoric as avenues to discovery in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Scholars from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds examine the agency of early modern poets playwrights essayists philosophers natural philosophers and artists in remaking their culture and reforming ideas about human understanding Analyzing the ways in which the works of such diverse writers as Shakespeare Bacon Hobbes Milton Cavendish Boyle Pope and Behn related to contemporary epistemological debates these essays move us toward a better understanding of interactions between the sciences and the humanities during a seminal phase in the emergence of modern Western thought

Scrum Wars Allan Gerald Levine, 1993 Scrum Wars chronicles fascinating and dramatic confrontations between the prime ministers of Canada and the men and women of Canada's news media

The Worldmakers Ayesha Ramachandran, 2015-10-13 In this beautifully conceived book Ayesha Ramachandran reconstructs the imaginative struggles of early modern artists philosophers and writers to make sense of something that we take for granted the world imagined as a whole Once a new exciting and frightening concept the world was transformed in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries But how could one envision something that no one had ever seen in its totality The Worldmakers moves beyond histories of globalization to explore how the world itself variously understood as an object of inquiry a comprehensive category and a system of order was self consciously shaped by human agents Gathering an international cast of characters from Dutch cartographers and French philosophers to Portuguese and English poets Ramachandran describes a history of firsts the first world atlas the first global epic the first modern attempt to develop a systematic natural philosophy all part of an effort by early modern thinkers to capture the world on the page
