Lost Ann Arbor Susan Cee Wineberg, 2004-11-10 Ann Arbor might have become just another small Michigan village had it not been for one crucial event its designation as the home of the University of Michigan in 1837 Its subsequent development into a thriving cultural and intellectual community was marked by its extraordinary architecture from the grand 1878 courthouse to the exquisite original university buildings and fashionable East Huron Street The expansion of the town and university the arrival of the automobile and frequent fires began a transformation of Ann Arbor that led to the tragic demolition of some of its most remarkable structures Lost Ann Arbor is a tribute to these long lost treasures and the 19th century way of life that accompanied them Lost Towns of Monroe County, Michigan Shawna Lynn Mazur, 2024-09-02

Echoes of the past can be found in every corner of Monroe County Incredibly the county has over a hundred lost towns across its fifteen townships Some of these towns have notorious histories such as the murderer who founded a village and the town that robbed its own citizens Some succumbed to tragedy including one that was swallowed up by the water and a resort town that disappeared Others were simply absorbed by another state Local historian and author of Hidden History of Monroe County Michigan Shawna Mazur collects the stories behind these vanished communities revealing where these towns were located how they grew and why they disappeared often without a trace Lost Burbank Wesley H. Clark & Michael B. McDaniel, 2016-10-31

Slowly fading with the city's ever changing landscape the places and people of Burbank's past tell a vibrant story Before the arrival of Warner Bros and Walt Disney First National Pictures built its original studio lot on Olive Avenue in 1926 For over sixty years Lockheed Aircraft Company produced some of the nation's best airplanes where the massive Empire Shopping Center now stands Heavyweight champion James Jeffries turned his Burbank ranch home and barn into a beloved landmark and boxing venue And inventor Joseph Wesley Fawkes's scheme to build a monorail to Los Angeles became a local laughingstock Diehard Burbankers Wes Clark and Michael McDaniel collect these and many more forgotten local stories where they can finally be found Lost Benzie County Louis Yock, 2011

After the Civil War in the 1860s veterans came to Benzie County and settled the farmlands lumber companies began to harvest the timber and railroads soon crisscrossed the landscape Villages with churches and schools such as Nessen City and Aral came to life Mill owners and workers and their families built company towns like Carter Siding Averytown and Watervale When the lumber died out these towns virtually disappeared and the largest towns such as Thompsonville and Honor were reduced in size and population But by then the Ann Arbor and Pere Marquette railroads were bringing tourists to the county and entrepreneurs turned mill towns farmland and lakefront into Worden's and Thompson's Resorts on Platte Lake and Robinson's and Pautz's Resorts on Crystal Lake Today they exist only in local lore along with the mill towns and lumber camps that preceded them and the railroads ships and ferries that once transported Benzie County's people and merchandise Westwater Lost and Found Mike Milligan, 2024-04-15 Westwater Lost and Found Expanded Edition is the continuing story of Westwater a relatively
