Solheim,2000-01-30 An examination of the political and social characteristics particular to Scandinavia which have made women s rise to power more rapid than in other regions of the world this study also explores how the resulting election of women has provided valuable evidence of the impact of women leaders and their leadership style Solheim begins with a critical survey of feminist scholarship regarding the equality difference debate and the application of such research on the position of women in international politics He concludes in this respect that leadership style may have less to do with gender than one might initially suspect Archival research and interviews with women in leadership roles provide the reader with a closer look at the Scandinavian system a view that will challenge gender stereotypes around the world On Top of the World explores the Nordic political systems in great detail and analyzes systemic factors such as multi party electoral systems and consensus seeking cultural institutions which contribute to the rise of so many women leaders Solheim compares and contrasts the political rise of two Nordic women leaders to power and influence and for the purpose of cross cultural comparison one woman leader from the developing world A final chapter ties together the theoretical framework and the case studies to suggest a direction for future research      Northern Europe Trudy Ring,Noelle Watson,Paul

Europe in Search of Political Order Johan P. Olsen,2007-02-01 This book deals with ongoing processes of European cooperation and integration processes that may have a potential to change the political organization of Europe Based on ideas from the new institutionalism the book offers a systematic perspective on institutional change and in particular the role of institutions in relation to four central and durable issues in the study of political life These are 1 the mediation between unity and diversity what ties a society together and what keeps it apart 2 The relations between citizens and their helpers why the democratic deficit in the European Union can not be eliminated solely by making mechanisms of direct citizens participation and representation more efficient Needed are also institutions that make direct participation redundant because they routinely work with integrity generating expected and desired outcomes 3 The relation between democratic design and historical drift To what degree democracies are able to design and reform key institutions of governance so that their structures reflect popular will understanding and control 4 The co existence of old and new political orders How elements of a new order may supplement rather than replace elements of the old order generating a mixed order based on partly inconsistent principles and rules      Southern Literary Messenger ,1850      The Athenaeum ,1836
