Prospects in International Investment Law and Policy Roberto Echandi,Pierre Sauvé,2013-04-18 The negotiation of a patchy but burgeoning network of international investment agreements and the increasing use to which they are put is generating a growing body of jurisprudence which while still evolving requires closer analytical scrutiny Drawing on many of the most distinguished voices in investment law and policy and offering novel multidisciplinary perspectives on the rapidly evolving landscape shaping international investment activity and treaty making this book explores the most important economic legal and policy challenges in contemporary international investment law and policy It also examines the systemic implications flowing from frenetic recent judicial activism in investment matters and advances several innovative propositions for how best to promote greater overall coherence in rule design treaty use and policy making and thus offer a better balance between the rights and obligations of international investors and host states Transnational Film shows how twins have been instrumental to the formation of comedies of mistaken identity the detective genre and dystopian science fiction The individual chapters trace the development of the category of twinship over time demonstrating how the twin was repeatedly re invented as a cultural and pathological type when other discursive fields constituted themselves and how its literary treatment served as the battleground for ideological disputes by setting the stage for debates regarding kinship and reproduction or by partaking in discussions of criminality eugenic greatness and monstrous births The book addresses nearly 100 primary texts including works of Mary Elizabeth Braddon Wilkie Collins Charles Dickens Arthur Conan Doyle Aldous Huxley Christopher Priest William Shakespeare and Zadie Smith
