Lots Of Love From Africa

Carol Vickery

Lots Of Love From Africa:

Lots of Love from Africa Carol Vickery, 2005-10-31 Lots of Love from Africa is a delightful collection of children's stories, poems and letters written by the author and her family when they lived in Africa in the 1970s. It is a lovely representation of life at the time. There are also many beautiful photos and other memorabilia included in the book. To Africa in Love Jim Harries, 2019-09-10 Mel's Crush on Philo had her drag others with her into an adventure of discovery about Christian mission in contemporary Africa. Set in the fictional African country of Holima, a tumultuous sequence of events sees Mel and her friends learn of the need for Christian mission to Africa to be long term and vulnerable. From unsuspecting lovers to deep rooted resistance, this book blends all aspects of a good novel with real African experiences. It would be a great read for people doing short term mission, says Dave Philo's great friend. Love, Sex and Teenage Sexual Cultures in South Africa Deevia Bhana, 2017-10-25

Love Sex and Teenage Sexual Cultures in South Africa interrupts the relative silence around teenage constructions of love in South Africa. Against the backdrop of gender inequalities, HIV and violence, the book situates teenage constructions of love and romance within the wider social and cultural context underwritten by the histories of apartheid, chronic unemployment, poverty and the endless struggle to survive. By drawing on focus group discussions with African teenage men and women, the book addresses teenage Africans as active agents, providing a more nuanced picture of their desires and their dilemmas through which sexuality and love are experienced. The chapters in the book conceptualise desiring love, material love, pure love, forced love and fearing love. It argues that love is intrinsically linked to cultural practices and material realities which mold particular formations of teenage masculinities and femininities. This book will be of interest to academics, undergraduates, postgraduates and researchers in sociology, HIV health and gender studies, development and postcolonial studies and African studies. Africa's Anthropological Dictionary on Love and Understanding Ateh-Afac Fossungu, 2013-12-07 This book deals with love, marriage, family and witchcraft issues, but its central question remains that of whether love without understanding is love. Tackling love from much broader and interdisciplinary angles than just the love making that most love stories usually focus on, it advances the duo of love and understanding as the foundation of any successful marriage, family. Although Momany is blessed with often easily finding this rare duo, the tensions of belonging in Cameroon have been constant and persistent challenges. The book uniquely raises and brings new and ground breaking perspectives on its subject matters, obviously leaving many social scientists with much to do further research on.

African Life with Known and Unknown Love Partners Dr Asaph Moshikaro, 2019-01-07 This book explores the issues of promiscuity and carelessness and their effect on the prevalence of STIs and HIV/AIDS in Africa from a perspective focusing on African cultural constructs. As such, it puts African sexual habits and cultural beliefs vis-à-vis the STI and HIV/AIDS debate in an understandable context. It will appeal to both the general public as well as people in the private and public health spheres concerned with this scourge, as the book will assist in dealing with the associational and causative factors of the STI and HIV AIDS epidemic Eslanda Barbara Ransby, 2022-02-15 Eslanda Essie Cardozo Goode Robeson lived a colorful and amazing life Her career and commitments took her many places colonial Africa in 1936 the front lines of the Spanish Civil War the founding meeting of the United Nations Nazi occupied Berlin Stalin s Russia and China two months after Mao s revolution She was a woman of unusual accomplishment an anthropologist a prolific journalist a tireless advocate of women s rights an outspoken anti colonial and antiracist activist and an internationally sought after speaker Yet historians for the most part have confined Essie to the role of Mrs Paul Robeson a wife hidden in the large shadow cast by her famous husband In this masterful book biographer Barbara Ransby refocuses attention on Essie one of the most important and fascinating black women of the twentieth century Chronicling Essie s eventful life the book explores her influence on her husband s early career and how she later achieved her own unique political voice Essie s friendships with a host of literary icons and world leaders her renown as a fierce defender of justice her defiant testimony before Senator Joseph McCarthy s infamous anti communist committee and her unconventional open marriage that endured for over 40 years all are brought to light in the pages of this inspiring biography Essie s indomitable personality shines through as do her contributions to United States and twentieth century world history Reggae Love Love in an African Way Thousand Ways out of Africa „I love you Baby“ has many meanings. The quadrature of black-white-love.

What Lot's Wife Saw Ioanna Bourazopoulou,2013-06-05 It s been twenty five years since the Overflow flooded Southern Europe drowning Rome Vienna and Istanbul and turning Paris into a major port At the Dead Sea the earth has opened up to reveal a strange violet salt to which the world has become addicted and a colony has been established by the mysterious Consortium of Seventy Five to control the supply Run by murderers fugitives and liars the Colony is a haven to those fleeing Europe especially the privileged Purple Stars But when the governor of the Colony dies suddenly and mysteriously the six officials turn on each other sparking a terrifying chain of events which threatens the very existence of the Colony In Paris Phileas Book the greatest crossword compiler of his age and creator of the Epistleword is recruited by the sinister Consortium Presented with the epistolary confessions of the six he is ordered to sift truth from lies to find out who killed the unpopular Governor Bera But as Phileas starts to unravel the mystery he begins to realise that these are no ordinary letters and that nothing less than the course of human history is at stake What Lot s Wife Saw is an astonishing and beautifully written novel about the fear sin and guilt that lurks in the dark corridors of the human conscience It is a story on an epic scale about betrayal sacrifice and unconditional love and a darkly humorous parable recalling the Biblical tales of God s terrible rage and the fate that befell those who suffered it But above all it is an enthralling vision of a nightmarish world which only the power of humanity can change

Love Within Hate Prof. Sydney Ugwunna,2015-10-05

This book gives one of the most comprehensive and unique accounts of prejudice and racial discrimination in the United States of America in the early nineteen sixties to the present time. Sydney, who later became an American citizen, lived in the United States for fifty years. However, as an African student in the United States, he observed and experienced prejudice and discrimination. The account of racial unrest in the United States is given in this book without emotions or bitterness but endeavors to be realistic about the problem of racism. The book deals with root causes of racism, prejudice, and racial discrimination in the United States and provides some useful suggestions about solutions. The book is very readable and engaging with true stories of romance and love. Venerable Dr. Sydney Ugwunna is now a friend of at least two of the presidents of the United States, Clinton and Obama, and a close friend and admirer of the beloved queen of England, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. The venerable Prof. Sydney C. Ugwunna is a prominent retired grateful priest of the Church of England.

African Film Festivals and Transnational Flows of Living Cultural Heritage Sheila

Petty, 2025-07-25 This open access book investigates how flows of knowledge that arise from the African continent travel and are transformed through new contexts of presentation and engagement in new locations. Through case studies on Africa-themed film festivals in Africa, Europe, and the Americas, the book explores potential methods of catalyzing a transnational flow from inception to end that involves attention to process rather than studying festivals as static cultural products with discrete and isolated categories of programming, presentation, documentation, and networking. The chapters probe how festivals interact with place and location and create journeys of discovery in translating and contextualizing films for specific populations and audiences. The book also focuses on how dialogue is created in a festival knowledge forum that respects the living nature of cultural heritage as it is received from its original context, presented during film festivals, and passed on to future generations for safeguarding.

The First African-American Forefather of the United States of America: Barack Hussein Obama, Jr. Louella Hinton Tate, Prime Bishop Joseph Martin Davis, 2023-09-15 About the Book Walk in the Light is a tribute to our former first African American President of the United States of America and is dedicated mostly to young men whose fathers were not around to help their mothers who struggle every day to make ends meet. Barack Hussein Obama Jr. is a great role model for all young men regardless of creed or color. Our young men today need to know that if Obama could become President of the United States of America, they too can study hard, get a good education, and never give up, staying with God. About the Author Louella Hinton Tate loves to cook especially for homeless people. She loves to be at church every day of the week with a lot to thank God for. She owes him all of her time for he is working together with her in the center. She is totally happy to give back to him by showing his love for all. He continues to do for all of us. Louella also was salutatorian of her class when she graduated from high school and received a scholarship to go to Albany State University in Albany, Georgia, where she worked and learned how to cook in the cafeteria from the chef.

Love in Africa Jennifer Cole, Lynn M.

Thomas, 2009-08-01 In recent years, scholarly interest in love has flourished. Historians have addressed the rise of romantic love and marriage in Europe and the United States while anthropologists have explored the ways globalization has reshaped local ideas about those same topics Yet love in Africa has been peculiarly ignored resulting in a serious lack of understanding about this vital element of social life a glaring omission given the intense focus on sexuality in Africa in the wake of HIV AIDS Love in Africa seeks both to understand this failure to consider love and to begin to correct it In a substantive introduction and eight essays that examine a variety of countries and range in time from the 1930s to the present the contributors collectively argue for the importance of paying attention to the many different cultural and historical strands that constitute love in Africa Covering such diverse topics as the reception of Bollywood movies in 1950s Zanzibar the effects of a Mexican telenovela on young people s ideas about courtship in Niger the models of romance promoted by South African and Kenyan magazines and the complex relationship between love and money in Madagascar and South Africa Love in Africa is a vivid and compelling look at love s role in African society Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1981-03-10 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1981-03-10 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations for 2004 United States.
