Louis De Clercq Voyage En Orient:

The Waking Dream Maria Morris Hambourg, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1993 The 253 works in the exhibition many of them rare or unique and all of exceptional print quality have been culled from the more than five thousand that comprise the legendary but seldom exhibited Gilman Paper Company Collection the most important private collection of photographs in the world The Bible and the Image Yeshayahu Nir, 2017-01-30 This book is a volume in the Penn Press

Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 100 titles from Penn Press's distinguished backlist from 1899-1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas Nineteenth-Century

Photographs and Architecture Micheline Nilsen, 2017-07-05 Eschewing the limiting idea that nineteenth century architecture photography merely reflects functionality the objective of this collection is to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time The essays hold appeal for social and cultural historians as well as those with an interest in the fields of art history urban geography history of travel and tourism Nineteenth century photographers captured what could be seen and what they wanted to be seen Their images informed of exploration progress heritage and destruction Architecture was a staple subject for the first generation of photographers as it patiently tolerated the long exposures of the early processes During its formative decades photography responded to evolutionary cultural forces of market and artistic production Photographs of architecture reflected a specific political or social context modulated through individual points of view For this reason the examination of each photographic image as a primary visual document and an aesthetic object rather than a technical milestone on a chronological trajectory affords a richer multi faceted approach to the extensive and complex corpus of photographs taken by photographers all over the world This project acknowledges the importance of technique in the early decades of photography but focuses on the thematic content of the material It places the photography of architecture in an international context under the contemporary critical lens sharpened by theoretical and cultural examinations of the topic

Revealing the Holy Land Kathleen Stewart Howe, Santa Barbara Museum of Art, St. Louis Art Museum, 1997 This is the catalog for an exhibition of ninety nineteenth century photographs drawn primarily from the world class collection of Michael G Wilson Included are the starkly beautiful photographs of Sergeant James McDonald's surveys of Palestine and Jerusalem recently discovered photographs by Ernest Benecke and the rare photographs by Maxime Du Camp taken in 1850 as he traveled with Flaubert With the invention of photography and the increasing popularity of travel in the mid nineteenth century the Holy Land became one of the most photographed places on earth Interest in Jerusalem and Palestine was particularly pronounced in England partly because of England's need to control its routes to the riches of India but also because of Britain's cultural identification with the people and lands of the Bible Imperial ambition and deeply ingrained cultural associations resulted in a surge of photographic activity in Palestine McDonald's photographs from surveys of Jerusalem and the Sinai epitomize the dual imperatives of Bible and Empire Photography provided a new standard for authenticity in pictorial representations Early photographs were considered the ultimate bearers of reality at a time when viewers had not yet lost their naive faith in the objective accuracy of photography Throughout the last half of the nineteenth century the Holy Land drew legions of photographers amateurs recording a stop on the Grand Tour academics pursuing archaeological theories military surveyors all trying to capture the truthfulness of a land that had enormous spiritual emotional and political connotations for most of the Western world What they saw and how they saw it are the themes of this beautifully recorded collection Crusader Art in the Holy Land, From the Third Crusade to the Fall of Acre Jaroslav Folda, 2005-09-05 Publisher Description Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy, 2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come Its coverage is global an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena Coverage includes all the key people processes equipment movements styles debates and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool creative medium and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics students researchers and libraries worldwide Bulletin - Museums of Art and Archaeology, University of Michigan University of Michigan. Museum of Art, 1983 A Companion to Medieval Art Conrad Rudolph, 2011-09-07 A Companion to Medieval Art brings together cutting edge scholarship devoted to the Romanesque and Gothic traditions in Northern Europe Brings together cutting edge scholarship devoted to the Romanesque and Gothic traditions in Northern Europe Contains over 30 original theoretical historical and historiographic essays by renowned and emergent scholars Covers the vibrancy of medieval art from both thematic and sub disciplinary perspectives Features an international and ambitious range from reception Gregory the Great collecting and pilgrimage art to gender patronage the marginal spolia and manuscript illumination The Crusader World Adrian Boas, 2015-10-14 The Crusader World is a multidisciplinary survey of the current state of research in the field of crusader studies an area of study which has become increasingly popular in recent years In this volume Adrian Boas draws together an impressive range of academics including work from renowned scholars as well as a number of though provoking pieces from emerging researchers in order to provide broad coverage of the major aspects of the period This authoritative work will play an important role in the future direction of crusading studies This volume enriches present knowledge of the crusades addressing such wide ranging subjects as intelligence and espionage gender issues religious celebrations in crusader Jerusalem political struggles in crusader Antioch the archaeological study of battle sites and fortifications diseases suffered by the crusaders crusading in northern Europe and Spain and the impact of Crusader art The relationship between Crusaders and Muslims two distinct and in many way opposing cultures is also examined in depth including a discussion of how the Franks perceived their enemies Arranged into eight thematic sections The Crusader World considers many central issues as well as a large number of less familiar topics of the crusades crusader society history and culture With over 100 photographs line drawings and maps this impressive collection of essays is a key resource for students and scholars alike French Primitive Potography ,1969 Unthinking Eurocentrism Ella

Shohat,Robert Stam,2014-06-05 Unthinking Eurocentrism a seminal and award winning work in postcolonial studies first published in 1994 explored Eurocentrism as an interlocking network of buried premises embedded narratives and submerged tropes that constituted a broadly shared epistemology Within a transdisciplinary study the authors argued that the debates about Eurocentrism and post coloniality must be considered within a broad historical sweep that goes at least as far back as the various 1492s the Inquisition the Expulsion of Jews and Muslims the Conquest of the Americas and the Transatlantic slave trade a process which culminates in the post War attempts to radically decolonize global culture Ranging over multiple geographies the book deprovincialized media cultural studies through a polycentric approach while analysing in depth such issues as postcolonial hybridity antinomies of Enlightenment the tropes of empire gender and rescue fantasies the racial politics of casting and the limitations of positive image analysis The substantial new afterword in this 20th anniversary new edition brings these issues into the present by charting recent transformations of the intellectual debates as terms such as the transnational the commons indigeneity and the Red Atlantic have come to the fore The afterword also explores some cinematic trends such as indigenous media and postcolonial adaptations that have gained strength over the past two decades along with others such as Nollywood that have emerged with startling force Winner of the Katherine Kovacs Singer Best Film Book Award the book has been translated in full or in its entirety into diverse languages from Spanish to Farsi This expanded edition of a ground breaking text proposes analytical grids relevant to a wide variety of fields including postcolonial studies literary studies anthropology media studies cultural studies and critical race studies The A-Z of Spanish

Photographers Oliva María Rubio,2013 Fotografía y arquitectura en el siglo XIX Helena Pérez Gallardo,2015-06-18 Junto al análisis y la contextualización de la fotografía europea de arquitectura se destaca en este libro el importante papel ahora recuperado que tuvo en este género fotográfico la representación de la arquitectura española ya sea por medio de nuevos análisis de fotografías de referencia como Charles Clifford o Jean Laurent o a través del descubrimiento de otros completamente desconocidos hasta ahora de los que se reconstruyen sus trayectorias y obras España a través de la fotografía (1839-2010) Varios autores,2013-10-02 Una visión de España a través de la fotografía desde los primeros daguerrotipos hasta la actualidad A través de las imágenes seleccionadas para el volumen algunas instaladas en la memoria

colectiva e identificadas con momentos clave del pasado reciente es posible realizar un recorrido apasionante por nuestra historia nuestro paisaje la arquitectura de los pueblos y ciudades en los que vivimos y la sociedad que formamos La selección de imágenes va precedida de dos artículos monográficos en los que Jordi Canal y Alejandro Castellote reflexionan sobre el devenir de España en los últimos 160 años y la historia de la fotografía en nuestro país

Inside/Outside Islamic Art and Architecture Saygin Salgirli, 2021-07-29 When we walk into a gallery we have a fairly good idea where the building begins and ends and inside while observing a painting we are equally confident in distinguishing between the painting proper and its frame and borders Yet things are often more complicated A building defines an exterior space just as much as an interior and what we perceive to be ornamental and marginal to a given painting may in fact be central to what it represents In this volume a simple question is presented instead of dichotomous separations between inside and outside or exterior and interior what other relationships can we think of The first book of its kind to grapple with this question Inside Outside Islamic Art and Architecture focuses on a wide spectrum of mediums and topics including painted manuscripts objects architectural decoration architecture and urban planning and photography Bringing together scholars with diverse methodologies who work on a geographical span stretching from India to Spain and Nigeria and across a temporal spectrum from the thirteenth to the twenty first century this original book also poses engaging questions about the boundaries of the field

Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond Tombul, Işıl, Sarı, Gülşah, 2021-05-28 Orientalism is about much more than just information gathered about the East within its general postcolonial period In this period orientalism is a Western discourse that dominated and shaped the view of the East There is otherization in the way the West has historically looked at the East and within the information presented about it These original stories of travelers in the past and previous telling about the East are facing a reconstruction through modern types of media Cinema television news newspaper magazine internet social media photography literature and more are transforming the way the East is presented and viewed Under the headings of post orientalism neo orientalism or self orientalism these new orientalist forms of work in combination with both new and traditional media are redefining orientalism in the media and beyond The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond shows how both new media and traditional media deal with orientalism today through the presentation of gender race religion and culture that make up orientalist theory The chapters focus on how orientalism is presented in the media cinema TV photography and more This book is ideal for communications theorists media analysts practitioners researchers academicians and students working in fields that include mass media communications film studies ethnic studies history sociology and cultural studies
