Louis Lambert Les Proscrits Jesus Christ:

Genius in France Ann Jefferson, 2014-12-21 This engaging book spans three centuries to provide the first full account of the long and diverse history of genius in France Exploring a wide range of examples from literature philosophy and history as well as medicine psychology and journalism Ann Jefferson examines the ways in which the idea of genius has been ceaselessly reflected on and redefined through its uses in these different contexts She traces its varying fortunes through the madness and imposture with which genius is often associated and through the observations of those who determine its presence in others Jefferson considers the modern beginnings of genius in eighteenth century aesthetics and the works of philosophes such as Diderot She then investigates the nineteenth century notion of national and collective genius the self appointed role of Romantic poets as misunderstood geniuses the recurrent obsession with failed genius in the realist novels of writers like Balzac and Zola the contested category of female genius and the medical literature that viewed genius as a form of pathology She shows how twentieth century views of genius narrowed through its association with IQ and child prodigies and she discusses the different ways major theorists including Sartre Barthes Derrida and Kristeva have repudiated and subsequently revived the concept Rich in narrative detail Genius in France brings a fresh approach to French intellectual and cultural history and to the burgeoning field of genius studies A Natural History of Pragmatism Joan

Richardson, 2006-12-21 Joan Richardson provides a fascinating and compelling account of the emergence of the quintessential American philosophy pragmatism She demonstrates pragmatism's engagement with various branches of the natural sciences and traces the development of Jamesian pragmatism from the late nineteenth century through modernism following its pointings into the present Richardson combines strands from America's religious experience with scientific information to offer interpretations that break new ground in literary and cultural history This book exemplifies the value of interdisciplinary approaches to producing literary criticism In a series of highly original readings of Edwards Emerson William and Henry James Stevens and Stein A Natural History of Pragmatism tracks the interplay of religious motive scientific speculation and literature in shaping an American aesthetic Wide ranging and bold this groundbreaking book will be essential reading for all students and scholars of American literature La Comédie Humaine* Honoré de Balzac, 1904

Bogousslavsky,S. Dieguez,2013-02-21 Classical and modern literature is full of patients with interesting neurological cognitive or psychiatric diseases often including detailed and accurate descriptions which suggests the authors were inspired by observations of real people In many cases these literary portrayals of diseases even predate their formal identification by medical science Fictional literature encompasses nearly all kinds of disorders affecting the nervous system with certain favorites such as memory loss and behavioral syndromes There are even unique observations that cannot be found in scientific and clinical literature because of the lack of appropriate studies Not only does literature offer a creative and humane look at disorders of the brain and mind but just as authors have been inspired by medicine and real disorders clinicians have also gained knowledge from literary depictions of the disorders they encounter in their daily practice This book provides an amazing and fascinating look at neurological conditions patients and doctors in literature and film in a way which is both nostalgic and novel The Works of Balzac Honoré de Balzac,1900 Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern: A-Z Charles Dudley Warner,1902 Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern--Index-guide to Library of the World's Best Literature ... Charles Dudley Warner,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Lucia Isabella Gilbert Runkle,George Henry Warner,1897 A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol. III (Forty-Five Volumes); Auerbach - Bancroft Charles Dudley Warner,2008-06-01 Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it s not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner s quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world Highlights from Volume 3 include selections from Emile Augier s The Adventuress selections from Saint Augustine s Confessions writings of Jane Austen essays and letters of Francis Bacon literary and political criticism by Walter Bagehot the ballads of Robin Hood Childe Maurice and others selections from the works of Honor de Balzac and much much more LIBRARY OF THE WORLD'S BEST LITERATURE: Ancient and Modern ,1897 The Comedy of Human Life Honoré de Balzac,1901 The Works of Honoré de Balzac Honoré de Balzac,1901 The magic skin, The quest of the absolute, and other stories Honoré de Balzac,1901 Catalogue of the Circulating Department Free Public Library (Worcester, Mass.),1884 The magic skin, The quest of the absolute, and others stories Honoré de Balzac,1901 Honoré de Balzac; a memoir, comp. and written by Katharine Prescott Wormeley Honoré de Balzac,1899 List of Books Forming the Reference in the Reading Room of the British
