Lichtenwalter,2008 The Book of Revelation The Apocalypse Words that often call to mind bizarre creatures strange seals dreadful plagues and a slew of other mystifying symbols Most of us approach this last book of the Bible with forebodings rather than hope To us John s vision seems more like a nightmare But the elderly apostle begins with a statement that doesn t seem to fit the rest of the book The revelation of Jesus Christ Apparently he intends to unveil something tremendously important about Jesus Something life changing Something we can t afford to miss Larry Lichtenwalter explores a side of Revelation seldom portrayed Christ s passionate love for humanity This recurring theme subtly appears in the imagery and symbolism throughout John s vision The slain Lamb The divine protective sealing The blood bleached white robes The heart wrenching prayer of the saints Without Christ s love these scenes and symbols would mean nothing Ultimately John s vision reveals the extraordinary love of our Savior for His rebellious undeserving children and the incredible reasons we can love Him in return Gender and Apocalyptic Desire

Brenda E. Brasher, Lee Quinby, 2014-12-18 The female body has been an object of oppression and control throughout history Gender and Apocalyptic Desire exposes the often hidden links between the struggles of women and the conflict of good versus evil The essays examine the collisions between feminist and apocalyptic thought the ways in which apocalyptic belief functions as bodily discipline and cultural practice and how some currents of apocalyptic desire can enable women's equality A wide range of issues are examined from anti abortion terrorism to the stigmata of Christ and visions of Mary

Love, Violence, and the Cross Gregory Anderson Love, 2010-08-01 Does God use violence to redeem us What is the relationship between divine love and violence in regard to the saving significance of the cross of Christ In Love Violence and the Cross Gregory Love dialogues with two responses to this question while presenting a third alternative in which Jesus's death is simultaneously a crime and an element of God's saving actions Through familiar stories in history literature and film Love presents five constructive models that cumulatively affirm God's saving act in the person and work of Christ while letting go the myth of redemptive violence They affirm redemption but one with a different shape Instead of exacting the absolute punishment God redeems by making good God's promise to humanity to secure human life Love argues that God is nonviolent while retaining the core idea presented in the New Testament witnesses that reconciliation occurs in the work of Christ and that the cross plays a role in that divine work
