Age of the Spirit John Maiden, 2023 How did charismatic renewal transform the churches in the twentieth century moving from the periphery to the mainstream In Age of the Spirit John Maiden looks at the rise of charismatic Christianity before during and after the long 1960s across the English speaking world Love is Our Home; The Beginnings of Post Green Community Faith with Hinton Lees (Jeanne.), A Fruit-Bearing Spirituality Carolyn Reinhart, MA D. Prof., 2013-12-13 A Fruit Bearing Spirituality is the fruit of years of formal study in the field of spirituality combined with 70 years of life experience. The book is not about religion theology or church but helps the reader to learn more about the meaning of the word spirituality for today It includes a consideration of our humanity and spirituality our spiritual journey transformation and growth relationships integrating the personal and social how to change the context organization and the relationship of Spirituality with Quantum Physics Love is Our Home Faith Lees, Jeanne Hinton, 1978 Charismatic Movement Charles Edwin Jones, 1995-04-28 indispensable for all theological libraries and upper division undergraduate and graduate collections generally METHODIST HISTORY the standard bibliographic source for the topic Recommended for any library supporting the study of religion in the present day U S CHOICE The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells.1979 National Union Catalog, 1983 Includes entries for maps and atlases Full Gospel Business Men's Voice ,1985 The Farmers' Advocate and Home Magazine ,1917 State Magazine ,2015 Growing Up with Prayer, Love, and the Red Dirt Road Cheryl Moffett, 2022-05-02 I slowly raised my hand when the visiting pastor asked who wants change in their life He looked at me and told me I have nothing for you you need to write just write Your story needs to be heard We were barely hitting top speed flying down the hill and the sound that blasted through the trees and above the pebbles scared us all It was the blast of a horn from a log truck This bellowing booming sound meant get out of the way Our laughter turned into fear as we all turned back to see a large empty log truck barreling at us Growing up in the heart of the deep East Texas woods with three channels on TV we could not help but take our adventures outside These stories will take you down the red dirt road we called home We raced log trucks in a makeshift buggy nearly burnt down Granny s house danced in her shoes created clubhouses out of anything not tied down plus so many more Looking back at these adventures we laugh and wonder how we made it without broken bones or worse mishaps We made it with prayer and a family s love for God and us With each adventure you read you will find a lesson learned I discovered along the way forty plus years later as I have grown into my faith It s been there all along all I needed was to slow down and be still The New Strawbale Home Catherine Wanek, 2009 Presents floor plans and images of strawbale homes from around the country discussing such topics as climate considerations maintenance budgeting code compliance energy efficiency and structural systems The American Legion Monthly American Legion, 1928 Atkinson's Evening Post, and Philadelphia Saturday News, 1929

School Music ,1918 The Christian Advocate ,1908 African Climate Futures Carl Death, 2025-06-10 African Climate Futures shows how climate changed futures are imagined in Africa and by Africans and how these future visions shape political debates and struggles in the present Scientific climate scenarios forecast bleak futures with increased droughts floods lethal heatwaves sea level rises declining crop yields and greater exposure to vector borne diseases Yet African climate futures could also encompass energy transitions and socio economic revolutions transformed political agency and human subjectivities and radically reparative more than human climate politics At the heart of the book is an original and interdisciplinary approach It studies official climate policy strategies and fictional texts side by side as ecopolitical imaginaries that envision low carbon climate changed futures and narrate pathways from here to there It discusses net zero strategies from Ethiopia The Gambia Nigeria South Africa and Zimbabwe and draws on postcolonial feminist and gueer theory arguing that Africanfuturist climate fiction can inspire more radical reparative more than human ecopolitical imaginaries. These stories can help us to understand the debts we all owe imagine what reparations might entail and explore the contours of living convivially alongside more than human others in heterotopian climate changed futures Stories can help explore how we might feel in climate changed futures and can help us to narrate a path through them This book uses Africanfuturist climate fiction to inspire new ways of challenging and enriching theoretical debates in global climate change politics including how we understand the places temporalities ecologies and politics of climate futures If we want to survive to tell new stories in liveable futures then we need to urgently and radically transform carboniferous capitalism Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization gender and political representation the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict comparative political thought and the nature of the continent's engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The focus of the series is on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman University of Birmingham Peace Medie University of Bristol and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira University of Oxford I fell in love with you and I cried Rachel Hill, 2022-04-02 I fell in love with you and I cried is a spiritual personal and travel memoir of a year in India and Southeast Asia In April 2017 my husband and I asked ourselves what would we do if we could do anything We decided to sell up leave our jobs and go travelling along the way unpicking the conditioning of property career and security and exploring what a life with less stuff would look like We gave away most of our possessions and in March 2018 we went to India where we spent seven months in all then Thailand Tokyo Nepal

Cambodia and Vietnam My book documents the trip through the eyes of a relatively inexperienced traveller The sights sounds and colours of India and Southeast Asia as well as the physical and emotional challenges of a year of travel This was a pre Covid19 trip of a lifetime making connections with local people and fellow travellers and putting beliefs about minimalism into practice by living out of a small backpack for a year of slow travel
