Marriage in Past, Present and Future Tense Janet Carsten, Hsiao-Chiao Chiu, Siobhan Magee i, Eirini Papadaki , Koreen M. Reece, 2021-09-01 Marriage globally is undergoing profound change provoking widespread public comment and concern Through the close ethnographic examination of case studies drawn from Africa Asia Europe and North America Marriage in Past Present and Future Tense places new and changing forms of marriage in comparative perspective as a transforming and also transformative social institution In conditions of widespread socio political inequality and instability how are the personal the familial and the political co produced How do marriages encapsulate the ways in which memories of past lives present experience and imaginaries of the future are articulated Exploring the ways that marriage draws together and distinguishes history and biography ritual and law economy and politics in intimate family life this volume examines how familial and personal relations and the ethical judgements they enfold inform and configure social transformation Contexts that have been partly shaped through civil wars cold war and colonialism as well as other forms of violent socio political rupture offer especially apt opportunities for tracing the interplay between marriage and politics But rather than taking intimate family life and gendered practice as simply responsive to wider socio political forces this work explores how marriage may also create social change Contributors consider the ways in which marital practice traverses the domains of politics economics and religion while marking a key site where the work of linking and distinguishing those domains is undertaken

Women in Medieval Europe 1200-1500 Jennifer Ward, 2016-04-14 Women in Medieval Europe explores the key areas of female experience in the later medieval period from peasant women to Queens It considers the women of the later Middle Ages in the context of their social relationships during a time of changing opportunities and activities so that by 1500 the world of work was becoming increasingly restricted to women The chapters are arranged thematically to show the varied roles and lives of women in and out of the home covering topics such as marriage religion family and work For the second edition a new chapter draws together recent work on Jewish and Muslim women as well as those from other ethnic groups showing the wide ranging experiences of women from different backgrounds Particular attention is paid to women at work in the towns and specifically urban topics such as trade crafts healthcare and prostitution The latest research on women gender and masculinity has also been incorporated along with updated further reading recommendations This fully revised new edition is a comprehensive yet accessible introduction to the topic perfect for all those studying women in Europe in the later Middle Ages

Metaphor and Political Discourse A. Musolff, 2004-08-04 Far from being rhetorical ornaments metaphors play a central role in public discourse as they shape the structure of political categorisation and argumentation Drawing on a very large bilingual corpus this book now in paperback analyses the distribution of metaphor scenarios in more than a decade of public discourse on European integration elucidating differences in UK and German attitudes and argumentation The corpus analysis leads to a refinement of cognitive metaphor theory by systematically relating conceptual semantic and argumentation levels and incorporating the historical dimension of metaphor evolution Finally drawing on examples of metaphor negotiation and on a reassessment of Hobbes concept of metaphor in Leviathan the book highlights the ethical dimension of metaphor in politics

WOMAN AND FAMILY IN RECENT INDIAN FEMINIST FICTION IN ENGLISH: A SELECT STUDY G. RUBY DAVASEELI, Women, Education, And Family Structure In India Carol C Mukhopadhyay, 2021-11-28 Five decades of independence have produced dramatic increases in womens educational

achievements in India but education for girls beyond a certain level is still perceived as socially risky Based on ethnographic data and historical documents this book explores the origins of that paradox Contributors probe the complex relationships between traditional Indian social institutions the joint family arranged marriage dowry and purdah or sexual segregation and girls schooling They find that a patrifocal family structure and ideology are often at the root of different family approaches to educating sons and daughters and that concern for marriageability still plays a central role in womens educational choices and outcomes
