Love Meets Wisdom A Christian Experience Of Buddhism Faith Meets Faith:

Love Meets Wisdom Aloysius Pieris, 1988      Crucified Wisdom S. Mark Heim, 2018-12-04 Winner of the Frederick Streng Book Award for Excellence in Buddhist Christian Studies This work provides the first systematic discussion of the Bodhisattva path and its importance for constructive Christian theology Crucified Wisdom examines specific Buddhist traditions texts and practices not as phenomena whose existence requires an apologetic justification but as wells of tested wisdom that invite theological insight With the increasing participation of Christians in Buddhist practice many are seeking a deeper understanding of the way the teachings of the two traditions might interface Christ and the Bodhisattva are often compared superficially in Buddhist Christian discussion This text combines a rich exposition of the Bodhisattva path using ntideva s classic work the Bodhicaryavatara and subsequent Tibetan commentators with detailed reflection on its implications for Christian faith and practice Author S Mark Heim lays out root tensions constituted by basic Buddhist teachings on the one hand and Christian teachings on the other and the ways in which the Bodhisattva or Christ embody and resolve the resulting paradoxes in their respective traditions An important contribution to the field of comparative theology in general and to the area of Buddhist Christian studies in particular Crucified Wisdom proposes that Christian theology can take direct instruction from Mahayana Buddhism in two respects deepening its understanding of our creaturely nature through no self insights and revising its vision of divine immanence in dialogue with teachings of emptiness Heim argues that Christians may affirm the importance of novelty in history the enduring significance of human persons and the Trinitarian reality of God even as they learn to value less familiar nondual dimensions of Christ s incarnation human redemption and the divine life Crucified Wisdom focuses on questions of reconciliation and atonement in Christian theology and explores the varying interpretations of the crucifixion of Jesus in Buddhist Christian discussion The Bodhisattva path is central for major contemporary Buddhist voices such as the Dalai Lama and Thich Nhat Hanh who figure prominently as conversation partners in the text This work will be of particular value for those interested in dual belonging in connection to these traditions      The End of Divine

Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene, 2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr s pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty Wielding Stephen Colbert s word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene s call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love      News of Boundless Riches Max L. Stackhouse, Lalsangkima Pachuau, 2007      Beyond the Academy David Thang Moe, 2024-10-11 The term public theology was introduced by Martin E Marty in a 1974 article Since then scholarly discussions on public theology have become more popular in academic circles This book however is about the invitation for moving beyond the academy It provides two reasons for doing so First an overtly academic public theology is in crisis today Although public theology may be flourishing in the academy its relevance for real life is limited Second there is the ecclesial flourishing among grassroots Christian communities across Asia who witness to their lived faith in public and hidden life Their voices are largely unheard due to the gaps between the academy and the church This volume argues that we should consider their voices as key sources for developing a relevant lived Asian public theology The author makes the case for reimagining the paradigm shifts in lived Asian public theology of religions and for bridging the unhappy gaps between the academic and grassroots voices      Buddhist-Christian Dialogue as Theological Exchange Ernest M Valea, 2015-10-29 This book is intended to encourage the use of comparative theology in contemporary Buddhist Christian dialogue as a new approach that would truly respect each religious tradition's uniqueness and make dialogue beneficial for all participants interested in a real theological exchange As a result of the impasse reached by the current theologies of religions exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism in formulating a constructive approach in dialogue this volume assesses the thought of the founding fathers of an academic Buddhist Christian dialogue in search of clues that would encourage a comparativist approach These founding fathers are considered to be three important representatives of the Kyoto School Kitaro Nishida Keiji Nishitani and Masao Abe and John Cobb an American process theologian The guiding line for assessing their views of dialogue is the concept of human perfection as it is expressed by the original traditions in Mahayana Buddhism and Orthodox Christianity Following Abe's methodology in dialogue an Orthodox contribution to comparative theology proposes a reciprocal enrichment of traditions not by syncretistic means but by providing a better understanding and even correction of one's own tradition when considering it in the light of the other while using internal resources for making the necessary corrections      Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom A. Christian van Gorder, 2021-12-09 Buddhism and Christianity are ancient rich and multivalent wisdom spirituality traditions that often have insightful similarities as well as distinct perspectives from entirely different starting points Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom explores some of these paths and encourages readers to gain as far as is possible a participant's appreciation of another faith This book aims to help readers celebrate and enjoy the rich wisdom legacies of a teacher revealing a pure lotus blossoming from mud and the legacies of a peasant Jewish carpenter from Galilee revealing love on a cross Both teachers share the power of love the joys of healing encouragement and the creative resources of spirit-filled living Their ancient words and their modern communities still following these paths are dynamically relevant for our modern context of confusion and challenge      Religious Diversity—What's the Problem? Rita M. Gross, 2014-04-24 Once upon a time on grounds of both religion and common sense people assumed that the earth was flat and that the sun literally rose and set each day When newly developing knowledge made those beliefs untenable giving them up was difficult Today the belief that only one of the world s various religions is true for all people on earth is equivalent to the belief in a flat earth Both notions have become untenable given contemporary knowledge about religion Even though many people are still troubled by the existence of religious diversity today that diversity is a fact of life Religious diversity should be no more troubling to religious people than the fact that the earth is round and circles the sun This provocative book based on the author s longtime practice of Buddhism and comparative study of religion provides tools with which one can truly appreciate religious diversity as a gift and resource rather than as a deficiency or a problem to be overcome After we accept diversity as inevitable and become comfortable with it diversity always enriches life both nature and culture      A Theology of Dao Kim, Heup

Roshi one of the first American born Zen masters and Brother David Steindl Rast the Roman Catholic monk and hermit took place during a week long retreat the two old friends undertook in 1991 in a remote part of the island of Hawaii Their aim was to approach the dialogue between Buddhism and Christianity in a fresh way one that takes as its starting point a comparison of the personal experiences of the dialoguers as a Buddhist and as a Christian respectively rather than abstract concepts The result is the discovery of a surprising amount of common ground the kind of shared experience that forms a solid foundation for further dialogue     Faith, Religion & Theology Brennan Hill,Paul F. Watts,Kevin Dutton,2006-10 Each world faith tradition has its own distinctive relationship with science and the science religion dialogue benefits from a greater awareness of what this relationship is In this book members of the International Society for Science and Religion ISSR offer international and multi faith perspectives on how new discoveries in science are met with insights regarding spiritual realities The essays reflect the conviction that religion and science each proceed best when they re pursued in dialogue with each other and also that our fragmented and divided world would benefit more from a stronger dialogue between science and religion In Part One George F R Ellis John C Polkinghorne and Holmes Rolston III each a Templeton Prize winner discuss their views on why the science and religion dialogue matters They are joined in Part Two by distinguished theologians Fraser Watts and Philip Clayton who place the dialogue in an international context John Polkinghorne s inaugural address to the ISSR in 2002 is also included In Part Three five members of the ISSR look at the distinctive relationships of their faiths to science Carl Feit on Judaism Munawar Anees on Islam B V Subbarayappa on Hinduism Trinh Xuan Thuan on Buddhism Heup Young Kim on Asian Christianity George Ellis the recently elected second
