and a host of other music legends in their own distinctive way The struggle to survive in the music business hasn't been without losses and a need for life support It did when Miller Benny Goodman James and Ellington were in their heyday It's a financially precarious business regardless of your talent Inevitably music and dancing evolved and matured The reasons are numerous and linked to our heritage But like marching bands on the 4th of July imagine a country club new year's eve without live dance music and a big band Think about the many community social events and high school and college proms let alone wedding receptions that still insist on having live bands to play the foxtrots and swing numbers people enjoy My research shows that while there were approximately 800 big bands on the road during the swing era of the 1940s today there are nearly 1 300 big bands according to a Google search and a review of hundreds of territory bands Consequently neither the bands nor the music vanished they scattered throughout the American countryside
