

The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock by T.S. Eliot

S'io credesse che mia risposta fosse
A persona che mai tornasse al mondo,
Questa fiamma staria senza piu scosse.
Ma perciocche giammai di questo fondo
Non torno vivo alcun, s'i'odo il vero,
Senza tema d'infamia ti rispondo.

Let us go then, you and I,
When the evening is spread out against the sky
Like a patient etherized upon a table;
Let us go, through certain half-deserted streets,
The muttering retreats
Of restless nights in one-night cheap hotels
And sawdust restaurants with oyster-shells:
Streets that follow like a tedious argument
Of insidious intent
To lead you to an overwhelming question ...
Oh, do not ask, "What is it?"
Let us go and make our visit.

In the room the women come and go
Talking of Michelangelo.

The yellow fog that rubs its back upon the window-panes,

T.S. Eliot Shakti Batra, 2001 The Other Orpheus Merrill Cole, 2004-06-01 First published in 2003 This volume aims to re-establish an interest in poetry by integrating questions of prosody and aesthetics with political literary inquiry The broader theoretical goal is nothing less than a rehabilitation of the concepts of affect and imagination though the study also argues against anti-formalist approaches to literature , The Waste Land and Other Poems T.S. Eliot, 2010-12-21 This volume brings together the full contents of Prufrock and Other Observations 1917 Poems 1920 and The Waste Land 1922 together with an informative introduction and a selection of background materials Included as well are two of Eliot's most influential essays Tradition and the Individual Talent 1919 and The Metaphysical Poets 1921 As with other volumes in this series the material appearing here is for the most part drawn from The Broadview Anthology of British Literature acclaimed as the new standard in the field Appendices include a wide range of contextual materials pertaining to Modernism writings by Ezra Pound H D and Mina Loy reviews of The Waste Land art by Wyndham Lewis and excerpts from essays by Virginia Woolf and others The Waste Land, and Other Poems Thomas Stearns Eliot, 1962 The Centenary Edition 1888 1988 Writing Performance Ronald J. Pelias, 1999 Ronald J Pelias is concerned with writing about performance from the everyday performative routines to the texts on stage He seeks to write performatively to offer poetic or aesthetic renderings of performance events in order to capture some sense of their nature In his quest for the spirit of theatrical performances in a collection of essays Pelias of course asks more of the written word than the word can deliver Yet the attempt is both desirable and necessary To discuss performance without some accounting for its essence as art he asserts is at best misleading at worst fraud Pelias divides his efforts to present performance events into three general categories Performing Every Day On Writing and Performing and Being a Witness As the title implies Performing Every Day focuses on performances ranging from the daily business of enacting roles to the telling of tales that make life meaningful It incorporates essays about the ongoing process of presenting oneself in everyday life the gender script that insists that men enact manly performances the classroom performances of teachers and students stories of gender class and race that mark identity and a performance installation entitled A Day's Talk which is a record of talk produced in a day's time accompanied by reflections about and responses to that talk On Writing and Performing examines the written script and performance practices It contains a description of a struggle between a writer and a performer as they protect their own interests an intimate look at an apprehensive performer a short play entitled The Audition which deals with what it means to be an actor a chronicle of performance process from the perspective of an actor and a brief essay on the nature of performance Being a Witness examines performance from the perspective of the audience and the director It includes essays on the experience of being an audience member viewing theatre in the context of New York City directing and being directed by actors bodies watching The DEF Comedy Jam and in the form of an interview some final reflections about working with performance for many years

Poetic Obligation Matthew G. Jenkins, 2008-04 Since at least the time of Plato's Republic the relationship between poetry and ethics has been troubled Through the prism of what has been called the new ethical criticism inspired by the work of Emmanuel Levinas G. Matthew Jenkins considers the works of Objectivists Black Mountain poets and Language poets in light of their full potential to reshape this ancient relationship American experimental poetry is usually read in either political or moral terms Poetic Obligation by contrast considers the poems of Louis Zukofsky Charles Reznikoff George Oppen Edward Dorn Robert Duncan Susan Howe and Lyn Hejinian in terms of the philosophical notion of ethical obligation to the Other in language Jenkins's historical trajectory enables him to consider the full breadth of ethical topics that have driven theoretical debate since the end of World War II This original approach establishes an ethical lineage in the works of twentieth century experimental poets creating a way to reconcile the breach between poetry and the issue of ethics in literature at large With implications for a host of social issues including ethnicity and immigration economic inequities and human rights Jenkins's imaginative reconciliation of poetry and ethics will provide stimulating reading for teachers and scholars of American literature as well as advocates and devotees of poetry in general Poetic Obligation marshals ample evidence that poetry matters and continues to speak to the important issues of our day

The Poems of T. S. Eliot, Volume I T. S. Eliot, 2018-12-04 The first volume of the first paperback edition of The Poems of T S Eliot This two volume critical edition of T S Eliot s poems establishes a new text of the Collected Poems 1909 1962 rectifying accidental omissions and errors that have crept in during the century since Eliot s astonishing debut The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock In addition to the masterpieces The Poems of T S Eliot contains the poems of Eliot s youth which were rediscovered only decades later poems that circulated privately during his lifetime and love poems from his final years written for his wife Valerie Calling upon Eliot s critical writings as well as his drafts letters and other original materials Christopher Ricks and Jim McCue have provided a commentary that illuminates the imaginative life of each poem This first volume respects Eliot s decisions by opening with his Collected Poems 1909 1962 as he arranged and issued it shortly before his death This is followed by poems uncollected but either written for or suitable for publication and by a new reading text of the drafts of The Waste Land The second volume opens with the two books of verse of other kinds that Eliot issued Old Possum s Book of Practical Cats and Anabasis his translation of St John Perse s Anabase Each of these sections is accompanied by its own commentary Finally pertaining to the entire edition there is a comprehensive textual history that contains not only variants from all known drafts and the many printings but also extended passages amounting to hundreds of lines of compelling verse

Philosophy by Other Means Robert B. Pippin, 2021-05-11 Throughout his career Robert B Pippin has examined the relationship between philosophy and the arts With his writings on film literature and visual modernism he has shown that there are aesthetic objects that cannot be properly understood unless we acknowledge and reflect on the philosophical concerns that are integral to their meaning His latest book Philosophy by Other Means extends this trajectory offering a collection of essays that present profound considerations of philosophical issues in aesthetics alongside close readings of novels by Henry James Marcel Proust and J M Coetzee The arts hold a range of values and ambitions offering beauty playfulness and craftsmanship while deepening our mythologies and enriching the human experience Some works take on philosophical ambitions contributing to philosophy in ways that transcend the discipline s traditional analytic and discursive forms Pippin s claim is twofold criticism properly understood often requires a form of philosophical reflection and philosophy is impoverished if it is not informed by critical attention to aesthetic objects In the first part of the book he examines how philosophers like Kant Hegel and Adorno have considered the relationship between art and philosophy The second part of the book offers an exploration of how individual artworks might be considered forms of philosophical reflection Pippin demonstrates the importance of practicing philosophical criticism and shows how the arts can provide key insights that are out of reach for philosophy at least as traditionally understood Similes, Puns and Counterfactuals in Literary Narrative Jennifer Riddle Harding, 2017-04-21 In this study Jennifer Riddle Harding presents a cognitive analysis of three figures of speech that have readily identifiable forms similes puns and counterfactuals Harding argues that when deployed in literary narrative these forms have narrative functions such as the depiction of conscious experiences allegorical meanings and alternative plots uniquely developed by these more visible figures of speech Metaphors by contrast are often invisible in the formal structure of a text With a solid cognitive grounding Harding's approach emphasizes the relationship between figurative forms and narrative effects Harding demonstrates the literary functions of previously neglected figures of speech and the potential for a unified approach to a topic that crosses cognitive disciplines Her work has implications for the rhetorical approach to figures of speech for cognitive disciplines and for the studies of literature rhetoric and narrative

War Poets and Other Subjects Bernard Bergonzi, 2017-03-02 In the opening section of these related studies of modern literature Bernard Bergonzi considers the poetry and fiction of two World Wars including discussions of Wilfred Owen Richard Aldington's Death of a Hero Pat Barker's Regeneration and the poetry of the Desert War of the 1940s The second section deals with a number of prominent twentieth century authors Among other subjects it looks at Ford Madox Ford's The Good Soldier as a novel anticipating the Great War the treatment of memory in Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four and aspects of the poetry of T S Eliot responding to arguments about its anti-Semitism The final section is on Catholic writers from Hopkins and Chesterton to Graham Greene and David Lodge The book continues Bergonzi's extensive career as a critic and literary historian of the modern period and takes a fresh look at the subjects of some of the earlier books such as Hopkins Eliot Wells and the literature of war Heartache and Other Natural Shocks Glenda Leznoff, 2015-10-13 When fifteen year old Julia

Epstein and her Anglophone family flee Montreal in October 1970 she struggles to adjust to a new life in the suburban wasteland of North York Toronto Next door lives Carla Cabrielli who works her assets and knows how to get what she wants Julia and Carla get on a collision course not only for the same role in the school production of Hamlet but also for the leading man sword wielding bad boy and sex magnet Ian Slater Heartache and Other Natural Shocks explores teen rivalry When events take a dangerous turn both Julia and Carla become vulnerable to deception and betrayal Full of unexpected twist and turns Glenda Leznoff's unique novel marks the debut of an important new voice in young adult fiction Resources in Education ,1992-10
