Love Letters from a Fallen Woman Hafeez-Uddin, 1978-04 Love Letters from Heaven Debbie Peterson, 2018-01-17
After a failed miserable marriage Katie Adelton vowed she would never let another man into her life All of that changed with a single visit to the Normandy American Cemetery and an encounter with a handsome ghost from World War II A ghost that to her utter astonishment claimed to be her soul mate Sergeant William Malloy Griffin willingly gave his life for his country on the shore of Omaha Beach on D Day From that day forward he searched the entire earth for his lost love Once he found her it took everything in his power to break through the barrier that kept them apart Now a vengeful ghost is intent on destroying the heart of the only woman William will ever love What if the power of love can't conquer all Old Love-letters

Sherwood Anderson's Secret Love Letters Sherwood Anderson, Ray Lewis White, 1999-03-01 In 1927 tired of the literary life of New York City New Orleans and Chicago a famous but aging American writer named Sherwood Anderson 1876 1941 author of Winesburg Ohio 1919 and other short stories in which he virtually invented the modern American short story moved to rural Southwest Virginia to write for and edit two small town weekly newspaper that he owned the Marion Democrat and the Smyth County News Living again among the small town figures with whom he was usually most content William Faulkner Thomas Wolf and indeed an entire generation of the greatest American writers worked for several years at making his newspaper nationally famous while struggling to come to terms with a life threatening psychological depression and a failing third marriage Both of Anderson's midlife problems were complicated when he met Eleanor Copenhaver lovely young daughter in one of the prominent first families of Marion and a career social worker for the YWCA Trying to keep their ardent affair secret in the small town Anderson avidly courted the socially prominent and much younger Miss Copenhaver while at the same time trying to free himself from his embittered third wife and overcome the disadvantages of his age and his lover's family's distrust of him Having by the end of 1931 continued for three years his surreptitious and consuming affair with Miss Copenhaver Anderson determined on the first day of 1932 that the new year should be the year of decisions for him to gain his love in marriage or perhaps to end his life and he began the new year with a creative venture unique in literature Starting on January 1 Anderson secretly wrote and hid away for Eleanor Copenhaver to find after his eventual death one letter each day letters that she should someday discover whether they had ever become married or not and thereby relive in her memory their days of intense lovemaking a mutual despair about their then unlikely marriage Found by Eleanor Copenhaver Anderson only at Sherwood Anderson's death in 1941 and then preserved intact by this grieving widow who had married Anderson in 1933 the carefully hidden letters of 1932 recording their intense and seemingly doomed love affair have remained secret until now Chosen by Eleanor Copenhaver Anderson before her death in 1985 to publish her husband's secret love letters Anderson scholar Ray Lewis White has prepared a fascinating edition of these unique letters for the enjoyment of students and scholars of literature as well as for all other readers who savor compelling and inspiring stories of loss and love

Romantic Correspondence Mary A. Favret, 2004 This study of correspondence in the Romantic period calls into question the common notion that letters are a particularly romantic personal and ultimately feminine form of writing

Mary, A Fiction and The Wrongs of Woman, or Maria Mary Wollstonecraft, 2012-04-05 Mary Wollstonecraft wrote these two novellas at the beginning and end of her years of writing and political activism Though written at different times they explore some of the same issues ideals of femininity as celebrated by the cult of sensibility the unequal education of women and domestic subjugation Mary counters the contemporary trend of weak emotional heroines with the story of an intelligent and creative young woman who educates herself through her close friendships with men and women Darker and more overtly feminist The Wrongs of Woman is set in an insane asylum where a young woman has been wrongly imprisoned

by her husband By presenting the novellas in light of such texts as Wollstonecraft's letters her polemical and educational prose similar works by other feminists and political reformists the literature of sentiment and contemporary medical texts this edition encourages an appreciation of the complexity and sophistication of Wollstonecraft's writing goals as a radical feminist in the 1790s

The Galician Works of Ramón Del Valle-Inclán Ann Frost, 2010

Ramón del Valle Inclán 1866-1936 was undoubtedly the most controversial literary figure of his generation Whilst his genius was recognised by fellow writers the reading public was slow to accept his work and his theatre taxed directors and audiences alike One of the harshest criticisms levelled against him concerned his use of repetition This study shows how the reuse recycling and development of material becomes one of the hallmarks of Valle Inclán's writing during the first three decades of his literary career linking one genre with another and blurring the borders between different aesthetics The repetition of themes and motifs characters and stylistic devices reveals an underlying interdependence among works that on the surface appear unconnected or even contradictory Many of Valle Inclán's works have been studied in isolation rather than as pieces of a whole This book examines the elements that provide significant links in his writing between 1889 and 1922 most of which shares the common backdrop of Galicia and demonstrates that apparently unrelated works are part of a larger picture Despite changes in perspective and genre there are constants that relate individual works to those that precede and follow creating a unifying pattern of continuity
