LOVE, MARRIAGE, and THE BABY CARRIAGE David R. L. Stevens, 2011-01-14 Gospel Love, Marriage and Divorce Randall Lamb, 2020-03-05 The centrality of God in all things is not a novel concept to Christianity at least not in theory For centuries it would appear that the Church has somehow allowed herself to remove the God centered gospel definition from marriage and has subsequently fashioned a culturally subjective definition of love marriage and divorce that has left God in many respects far from the center This book however will pay less attention to our own domestic legacies of love marriage and divorce It is more so about the church covenants conditions true fidelity perseverance God centered joy authenticity fraud legalism and apostasy It is a journey into the kingdom of God wherein the visible and invisible church along with love marriage and divorce all seem to collide with the gospel of glory and grace Love, Marriage, Jealousy Sándor Forbát, 1938 Arranging Marriage Marian Aguiar, 2018-01-02 The first critical analysis of contemporary arranged marriage among South Asians in a global context Arranged marriage is an institution of global fascination an object of curiosity revulsion outrage and even envy Marian Aguiar provides the first sustained analysis of arranged marriage as a transnational cultural phenomenon revealing how its meaning has been continuously reinvented within the South Asian diaspora of Britain the United States and Canada Aguiar identifies and analyzes representations of arranged marriage in an interdisciplinary set of texts from literary fiction and Bollywood films to digital and print media to contemporary law and policy on forced marriage Aguiar interprets depictions of South Asian arranged marriage to show we are in a moment of conjugal globalization identifying how narratives about arranged marriage bear upon questions of consent agency state power and national belonging Aguiar argues that these discourses illuminate deep divisions in the processes of globalization constructed on a fault line between individualist and collectivist agency and in the process critiques neoliberal celebrations of culture as choice that attempt to bridge that separation Aguiar advocates situating arranged marriage discourses within their social and material contexts so as to see past reductive notions of culture and grasp the global forces mediating increasingly polarized visions of agency The Modern Family in Japan Chizuko Ueno, 2009 This award winning book brings together Chizuko Ueno's groundbreaking essays on the rise and fall of the modern family in Japan Combining historical sociological anthropological and journalistic methodologies Ueno who is arguably the foremost feminist theoretician in Japan delineates in vivid detail how the family has been changing in form and function in the last hundred years In each chapter Ueno introduces the reader to a different facet of modern Japanese family life ranging from children who fantasize about being orphans to the elderly who confront pre senescence The central focus is on the housewife her history her ever changing responsibilities her ways of surviving mid life crisis This is an indispensable book for students and scholars seeking to understand modern Japan Transitioning to Adulthood in Asia: School, Work, and Family Life Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, Cheryll Alipio, Frank F. Furstenberg, Jr., 2013-03-07 In the past decade or so scholars in the United States have identified the emergence of a new distinct stage of life as adolescence has become protracted and most young people of recent generations take longer to achieve economic and psychological autonomy than they did a half century ago This new life stage in between adolescence and adulthood when young people are in a semiautonomous state has come to be known as early adulthood Main characteristics of this new life stage include a later entry into the work force a longer period of time living in the natal home and a delayed age at marriage and childbearing These trends not only have profound implications for young adults well being and intergenerational relationships but also challenge social institutions such as family schools labor markets and many youth serving institutions certain gender age class relationships and violence are prone to give rise to suicidal responses By linking these experiences to emotional states it develops an ethnopsychiatric model of suicide rooted in social practice Widger then goes on to examine how suicides are resolved at village and national levels tracing the roots of interventions to the politics of colonial and post colonial social welfare and health regimes Exploring local accounts of suicide as both evidence for the suicide epidemic and as an ethos of suicidality shaping subjective worlds Suicide in Sri Lanka shows how anthropological analysis can offer theoretical as well as policy insights With the inclusion of straightforward summaries and implications for prevention at the end of each chapter this book has relevance for specialists and non specialists alike It represents an important new contribution to South Asian Studies Social Anthropology and Medical Anthropology as well as to cross cultural Suicidology
