Julia Kristeva has been both attracted and repelled by Dostoyevsky since her youth In this extraordinary book by turns poetic and intensely personal she brings her unique critical sensibility to bear on the tormented and visionary Russian author Kristeva ranges widely across Dostoyevsky's novels and his journalism plunging deep into the great works and many of the smaller ones to investigate her fascination with the Russian author What emerges is a luminous vision of the writer's achievements seen in a wholly new way through Kristeva's distinctive perspective on language With her keen psychoanalytical eye she offers brilliant insights into the passionate heroines of the great novels Focusing on Dostoyevsky's polyphonic writing Kristeva also demonstrates the importance of Orthodox Christianity throughout his body of work analyzing the complex ways his carnivalesque theology informs his fiction and commentary An original and profound interpretation of one of the nineteenth century s greatest writers this book s insights are also relevant to the twentieth and twenty first centuries up to our unsettled present to which Kristeva s humane reading of the suffering Russian author brings understanding and even solace Cops, Cons, and Grace Brian Cahill,2018-01-08 A decade ago Brian Cahill became the victim of the greatest tragedy any parent can endure with the loss of his firstborn son a veteran police officer in the aftermath of a painful divorce to suicide Far from the carefree retirement he had envisioned the devastated father faced a journey back from the brink of utter despair As the author of numerous opinion pieces and essays on religion the lifelong Catholic was familiar with the concept that the cross is followed by the resurrection and that from death comes new life In the devastating years following his beloved son s suicide the abstract became very real Cahill s work volunteering with two different groups cops and cons saved him allowing him to eventually experience a measure of grace The unlikely combination of working with SFPD officers on suicide prevention and leading a spirituality group for San Quentin lifers brought him enough of a sense of peace and acceptance to truly want to continue living Pearls from Heaven Myra Irizarry,2007-01-08
