meaning each returns with something new something utterly different from that which was sought Here in her first major work in English we find the pulsing streaming vision of time place history and character that distinguishes Roznoveanu's work in her native Romanian Roznoveanu restores a visionary spirit lost to English for two or more generations These stories come to us in the circuitous wake of the great early modernists offering prodigious healing power for the grave psychic wounds that have afflicted the human condition since the crucial turning point of 1945 The Life Manager and Other Stories scintillates with cascades of luminous images and narrative reversals that seize our attention and don't let go This is a book to return to again and again for its endlessly intriguing glimpses of the elusive peace and joy our souls thirst for About Love and Other Stories Anton Chekhov, 2008-07-10 the greatest short story writer who has ever lived Raymond Carver's unequivocal verdict on Chekhov's genius has been echoed many times by writers as diverse as Katherine Mansfield Somerset Maugham John Cheever and Tobias Wolf While his popularity as a playwright has sometimes overshadowed his achievements in prose the importance of Chekhov's stories is now recognized by readers as well as by fellow authors Their themes alienation the absurdity and tragedy of human existence have as much relevance today as when they were written and these superb new translations capture their modernist spirit Elusive and subtle spare and unadorned the stories in this selection are among Chekhov's most poignant and lyrical They include well known pieces such as The Lady with the Little Dog as well as less familiar work like Gusev inspired by Chekhov's travels in the Far East and Rothschild's Violin a haunting and darkly humorous tale about death and loss ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more First love, and other stories Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, 1922 My First Love Affair and Other Stories Sholem Aleichem, Curt Leviant, Arthur Zaidenberg, 2002-01-01 20 selections all lovingly translated from the Yiddish include among others Progress in Kasrilevke Summer Romances Birth There's No Dead Three Widows Homesick On America and A Home Away from Home

The Warden of the Plains, and Other Stories of Life in the Canadian North-west John MacLean, 2019-11-26 John MacLean's The Warden of the Plains and Other Stories of Life in the Canadian North west presents a vivid tapestry of life in the Canadian North West where rugged landscapes and untamed spirits collide Through a blend of rich descriptions and nuanced character development MacLean captures the essence of frontier life illustrating the resilience and complexities of its inhabitants The book's literary style is marked by a naturalistic approach allowing the stark realities of the North West to shine through while interweaving themes of struggle community and the relentless pursuit of a better life These tales set against the backdrop of early 20th century Canada provide a historical context that sheds light on the socio political dynamics of the time John MacLean a prominent figure in Canadian literature and a keen observer of human experiences drew from his own life experiences and the landscapes he traversed His background in journalism and advocacy for social issues resonates throughout the collection as he seeks to elevate the voices of marginalized communities in the North West This personal connection to the land and its people imbues the narratives with authenticity allowing readers to immerse themselves in the distinctive culture of the region I highly recommend this book to readers who seek a profound understanding of life in Canada's North West along with those enthralled by compelling storytelling that mirrors the trials and triumphs of its colorful characters MacLean's work is not merely a collection of stories it is a richly detailed exploration of a pivotal era in Canadian history

Malakut and Other Stories Bahrām Ṣādiqī, Bahram Sadeqi, 2012 A man who does not recognise his own face an aristocrat who keeps his amputated limbs in jars on the shelf an infant that commits suicide a cat that is secretly writing a novel a rooster that rebels against fate those are some of the characters that make Bahram Sadeqi's stories intriguing incomparable and inimitable Sadeqi is an original story teller who depicts familiar facts and mundane realities in such a way that shocks us to the core and makes us call everything into question With a subtle irony reminiscent of Poe Kafka and Marquez he engages us in an intricate quest to explore the meaning of life death and the cosmos Considering the slight body of work Sadeqi left behind after his untimely death one cannot help but be struck by the impact his work has had on Persian literature nevertheless Sadeqi consistently transgressed established literary ideologies with an easy confidence pioneering an entirely new style of literature and presenting his own unique perspective on the human condition His presence in contemporary Persian prose fiction was like that of a lone meteorite appearing in a blinding flash instantly yet fleetingly illuminating its surroundings then abruptly fading into the darkness leaving only a completely original overwhelming and fantastic trail the remainder of something singularly magnificent that we cannot hope to ever see repeated Ever since he first published his stories in literary journals as a young writer Sadeqi's works have been widely reprinted finding vast audiences among each new generation of Iranians This collection contains some of Sadeqi's best short stories as well as Malakut his magnum opus a novella that took everyone by surprise in the 1960s still fascinating readers and critics alike

First Love and Other Stories Ivan Turgenev, 2018-05-23 This collection brings together six of Turgenev's best known long short stories in which he turns his skills of psychological observation and black comedy to subjects as diverse as the tyranny of serfdom love and revenge on the Russian steppes These stories all display the elegance and clarity of Turgenev's finest writing
