Love Stories Sex Between Men Before Homosexuality:

Love Stories Jonathan Ned Katz, 2003-06-15 In presenting stories of men's intimacies with men during the 19th century in a world before the words gay and straight referred to sexuality Katz dives into histories through diaries, letters, and poems offering a clearer picture of how men navigated the uncharted territory of male-male desire The Advocate, 2002-02-05 The Advocate is a lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, LGBT monthly newsmagazine. Established in 1967, it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Intellectuals and Fascism in Interwar Romania Cristina A. Bejan, 2019-08-23 In 1930s Bucharest, some of the country's most brilliant young intellectuals converged to form the Criterion Association. Bound by friendship and the dream of a new modern Romania, their members included historian Mircea Eliade, critic Petru Comarnescu, Jewish playwright Mihail Sebastian, and a host of other philosophers and artists. Together, they built a vibrant cultural scene that flourished for a few short years before fascism and scandal splintered their ranks. Cristina A. Bejan asks how the far-right Iron Guard came to eclipse the appeal of liberalism for so many of Romania's intellectual elite, drawing on diaries, memoirs, and other writings to examine the collision of culture and extremism in the interwar years. The first English language study of Criterion and the most thorough to date in any language, this book grapples with the complexities of Romanian intellectual life in the moments before collapse The Passions of John Addington Symonds Shane Butler, 2022 The first critical analysis to embrace a wide and representative selection of John Addington Symonds's work beyond his famous essays. It explores Symonds as a complex thinker with an ambitious vision of the queerness of the world itself and follows his engagement with the art and literature of classical antiquity Identity Politics Reconsidered L. Alcoff, M. Hames-García, S. Mohanty, Michael Hames-García, Paula M.L. Moya, 2006-01-09 Based on the ongoing work of the agenda-setting Future of Minority Studies national research project, Identity Politics Reconsidered reconceptualizes the scholarly and political significance of social identity. It focuses on the deployment of identity within ethnic, women's, disability, and gay and lesbian studies in order to stimulate discussion about issues that are simultaneously theoretical and practical, ranging from ethics and epistemology to political theory and pedagogical practice. This collection of powerful essays by both well-known and emerging scholars offers original answers to questions concerning the analytical legitimacy of identity and experience and the relationships among cultural autonomy, moral universalism, and progressive politics The Gilded Age Construction of Modern American Homophobia J. Hatheway, 2003-06-27 The Gilded Age Construction of American Homophobia is an analysis of the negative response to the discovery of the homosexual in late Nineteenth-century America. In this period of social distress, many Americans came to doubt the underlying assumptions of national progress. If the United States were to remain true to its promise of earthly perfection, then the forces of social disharmony had to be overcome. Homosexuality, however, challenged the very notions of order and progress. This book investigates the responses of the emergent medical community to this problem and concludes with a discussion of how the negative reception of the homosexual impacted the future social conception of gay men and women
