Crow,Jan-Michael Poff,1982 Reflection on America's Great Loop George Hospodar,Patricia Hospodar,2012 Adventure is not just for the young Though I own a boat was the opening phrase to their courtship and eventual married life little did Baby Boomer couple George and Pat Hospodar know then that those words would lead to their making a year long journey of a lifetime aboard their boat Reflection almost forty years later This book welcomes and encourages not only fellow boaters but also armchair adventurers and dreamers of all ages to join them aboard as they share a light hearted real life account of their travels on the circumnavigation of the waterways of the eastern United States and Canada In addition for those who may consider making this journey themselves the authors offer insights and tips on Routes Anchorages Navigation Locking Marinas Free dockage Low bridges Fuel stops Restaurants Shopping Points of interest and local history Border crossings in Canada and the United States Local marine weather websites and phone numbers The Shape of Power Karen Lemmey,Tobias Wofford,Grace Yasumura,2024-11-12 A major new survey of American sculpture exploring how it both reflects and redefines concepts of race and identity in the United States How does American sculpture intersect with the history of race in the United States The three dimensional qualities of sculpture give it a distinct advantage over other art forms in capturing a subject s likeness and our minds can swiftly conjure a body and racialize it from the most minimal of prompts The Shape of Power examines the role of American sculpture from the nineteenth century to today in understanding and constructing the concept of race in the United States and how this medium has shaped the way generations have learned to visualize and think about race Exploring the relationship between sculpture and ideas about race in the United States this book provides fresh perspectives on artists ranging from Hiram Powers Edmonia Lewis and Augusta Savage to Barbara

Chase Riboud Titus Kaphar Raven Halfmoon Sanford Biggers Betye Saar Yolanda L.pez and Simone Leigh It reveals how sculptors use this versatile medium to challenge discriminatory ideologies and entrenched social and cultural constructions of race while offering bold new visions of community identity and selfhood Featuring superb illustrations of sculptural works in a broad range of media The Shape of Power contributes new scholarship to the understudied field of American sculpture which hasn't been the subject of a major publication survey in more than fifty years Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC November 8 2024 September 14 2025 The Encyclopedia Americana, 1990 Monthly Entries for the Spiritual but not Religious through the Year Mark G. Boyer, 2022-08-30 This is a book about spirituality for the spiritual but not religious Those who identify themselves as spiritual but not religious make up one quarter of the population in the United States This book provides 189 monthly entries based on the national and international celebrations that occur every month Each entry begins with the name of the occasion and the date when it is marked during the month A text from the Bible a US public law a presidential proclamation a United Nations declaration etc that illustrates the day is presented The text is followed by a reflection which gleams the spirituality from the text and provides historical background on the day being celebrated Journal meditation questions follow the reflection and a prayer concludes the entry This book is for the spiritual but not religious a practice of spirituality that does not regard organized religion as a valuable means to further interior spiritual growth A section of the introduction to the book explores who the spiritual but not religious are and presents the common themes that surface from research about them Deportation in the Americas Kenyon Zimmer, Cristina Salinas, 2018-04-12 In Deportation in the Americas Histories of Exclusion and Resistance editors Kenyon Zimmer and Cristina Salinas have compiled seven essays adapted from the Walter Prescott Webb Memorial Lecture Series that deeply consider deportation policy in the Americas and its global effects These thoughtful pieces significantly contribute to a growing historiography on deportation within immigration studies a field that usually focuses on arriving immigrants and their adaptation All contributors have expanded their analysis to include transnational and global histories while recognizing that immigration policy is firmly developed within the structure of the nation state Thus the authors do not abandon national peculiarity regarding immigration policy but as Emily Pope Obeda observes from its very inception immigration restriction was developed with one eye looking outward Contributors note that deportation policy can signal friendship or cracks within the relationships between nations Rather than solely focusing on immigration policy in the abstract the authors remain cognizant of the very real effects domestic immigration policies have on deportees and push readers to think about how the mobility and lives of individuals come to be controlled by the state as well as the ways in which immigrants and their allies have resisted and challenged deportation From the development of the concept of an anchor baby to continued policing of those who are foreign born Deportation in the Americas is an essential resource for understanding this critical and timely topic

Cumulated Index Medicus ,1979 Poverty Politics Sarah Robertson,2019-08-23 Representations of southern poor whites have long shifted between romanticization and demonization At worst poor southern whites are aligned with racism bigotry and right wing extremism and at best regarded as the passive victims of wider socioeconomic policies In Poverty Politics Poor Whites in Contemporary Southern Writing author Sarah Robertson pushes beyond these stereotypes and explores the impact of neoliberalism and welfare reform on depictions of poverty Robertson examines representations of southern poor whites across various types of literature including travel writing photo narratives life writing and eco literature and reveals a common interest in communitarianism that crosses the boundaries of the US South and regionalism moving past ideas about the culture of poverty to examine the economics of poverty Included are critical examinations of the writings of southern writers such as Dorothy Allison Rick Bragg Barbara Kingsolver Tim McLaurin Toni Morrison and Ann Pancake Poverty Politics includes critical engagement with identity politics as well as reflections on issues including Hurricane Katrina the 2008 financial crisis and mountaintop removal Robertson interrogates the presumed opposition between the Global North and the Global South and engages with microregions through case studies on Appalachian photo narratives and eco literature Importantly she focuses not merely on representations of southern poor whites but also on writing that calls for alternative ways of reconceptualizing not just the poor but societal measures of time value and worth

Clearing Iroquoia Travis M. Bowman,Matthew A. Zembo,2024-12-20 In 1778 George Washington Philip Schuyler army officers and New York officials began planning invasions against Iroquoia the homeland of the Haudenosaunee and several other allied Indigenous nations This invasion was one of the largest American offensives of the Revolutionary War curated to punish the Haudenosaunee for raids against frontier settlements in New York and Pennsylvania However the resulting 1779 campaigns of Goose Van Schaick Daniel Brodhead and Generals John Sullivan and James Clinton were not simple retaliation Clearing Iroquoia New York's Land Grab in the 1779 Campaigns of the American Revolution by Travis M Bowman and Matthew A Zembo critically examines archival materials from these campaigns to investigate the driving force behind the campaigns removal Through their research Bowman and Zembo explore how colonial leaders ignored peace efforts and how George Washington ordered his officers to do the same prioritizing the destruction of Iroquoia and placing native peoples at the lower end of a racial hierarchy to justify their actions Using letters journals speeches and reports this book brings the buried truths to light exploring these series of coordinated attacks that were designed to destroy Haudenosaunee political cohesion clear the Indigenous population from the land and replace it with a non Indigenous one 50 Years of
