North from Mexico Carey McWilliams, 1968 North from Mexico. The Spanish-speaking People of the United States, Etc Carey MACWILLIAMS, 1949 Out There Russell Ferguson, Martha Gever, Trinh T. Minh-Ha, Cornel West, 1992-02-11

Out There addresses the theme of cultural marginalization the process whereby various groups are excluded from access to and participation in the dominant culture It engages fundamental issues raised by attempts to define such concepts as mainstream minority and other and opens up new ways of thinking about culture and representation All of the texts deal with questions of representation in the broadest sense encompassing not just the visual but also the social and psychological aspects of cultural identity Included are important theoretical writings by Homi Bhabha Helene Cixous Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari and Monique Wittig Their work is juxtaposed with essays on more overtly personal themes often autobiographical by Gloria Anzaldua Bell Hooks and Richard Rodriguez among others This rich anthology brings together voices from many different marginalized groups groups that are often isolated from each other as well as from the dominant culture It joins issues of gender race sexual preference and class in one forum but without imposing a false unity on the diverse cultures represented Each piece in the book subtly changes the way every other piece is read While several essays focus on specific issues in art such as John Yau s piece on Wilfredo Lam in the Museum of Modern Art or James Clifford s on collecting art others draw from debates in literature film and critical theory to provide a much broader context than is usually found in work aimed at an art audience Topics range from the functions of language to the role of public art in the city from gay pornography to the meanings of black hair styles Out There also includes essays by Rosalyn Deutsche Richard Dyer Kobena Mercer Edward Said Gayatri Spivak Gerald Vizenor and Simon Watney as well as by the editors Copublished with the New Museum of Contemporary Art New York Distributed by The MIT Press

Mexico and the Spanish Cortes, 1810-1822 Nettie Lee Benson, 2014-11-06 Few developments in the history of the Spanish colonial system in Mexico have been more carelessly treated or more often misinterpreted than the attempt to establish constitutional government in New Spain under the Spanish monarchy during the 1809 1814 and 1820 1822 periods Yet the broad outlines of the Mexican constitutional system were laid then largely through the insistent efforts of the Mexican deputies to the Cortes the Spanish legislative body Some of the delegates also grasped this opportunity to inform their countrymen and train them in the effectiveness of parliamentary debate and resolution as a more intelligent road to democratic and representative government The 70 Mexican deputies of the 160 elected who actively participated in the sessions of the Cortes either helped draw up the Constitution of 1812 which initiated provisions for many needed reforms relating to military religious economic educational judicial and governmental affairs in Mexico or contributed to the enabling acts consequent to these provisions The prime reason for calling the Cortes however and especially for inviting the participation of the Mexicans was to attempt to maintain New Spain's loyalty to the mother country an unrealized objective in the long run although much constructive discussion of this goal was offered by the Mexican delegates These eight essays trace the establishment and implementation of the Mexican electoral system both national and municipal and of reforms in the economic journalistic religious and military systems They serve as an informative introduction to the revolutionary role the Cortes of Spain played in Mexican history and as a record of the contribution of Mexican delegates to the beginning of liberal reform in their country
