Uneasy Alliance , 2004-01-01 Uneasy Alliance illuminates the recent search in literary studies for a new interface between textual and contextual readings Written in tribute to G A M Janssens the twenty one essays in the volume exemplify a renewed awareness of the paradoxical nature of literary texts both as works of literary art and as documents embedded in and functioning within a writer s life and culture Together they offer fresh and often interdisciplinary perspectives on twentieth century American writers of more or less established status Henry James Edna St Vincent Millay E E Cummings Vladimir Nabokov Flannery O Connor Saul Bellow Michael Ondaatje Toni Morrison and Sandra Cisneros as well as on those who for reasons of fashion politics ideology or gender have been unduly neglected Booth Tarkington Julia Peterkin Robert Coates Martha Gellhorn Isabella Gardner Karl Shapiro the young Jewish American writers Julia Alvarez and writers of popular crime and detective fiction Exploring the fruitful interactions and uneasy alliance between literature and ethics film biography gender studies popular culture avant garde art urban studies anthropology and multicultural studies together these essays testify to the ongoing pertinence of an approach to literature that is undogmatic sensitive and sophisticated and that seeks to do justice to the complex interweavings of literature culture and biography in twentieth century American writing

pivotal position in the history of economic thought spanning the transition from classical to neo classical economics and playing a key role in the Marginal Revolution The breadth of Jevons s work is examined here which includes a detailed consideration of a wide range of his work policy theoretical methodological applied and empirical relies on textual exegesis takes account of a wide range of secondary sources A new approach to the Jevonian revolution is adopted which emphasizes the link between poverty and economics and focuses on the nature and meaning of rationality in Jevonian economics The Path of Deception David Gilbertson,2017-08-22 Scotland Yard has been destroyed and even worse is to come London is faced with the greatest terrorist outrage it has ever experienced when Scotland Yard and much of its surroundings are reduced to rubble With hundreds dead detectives are forced to confront the fact that somewhere in their midst at the very heart of their team there is a traitor A deeply hidden agent is working against them and just three senior detectives are privy to the secret with the clock ticking against them to neutralise him or her before a further outrage occurs that will dwarf anything that the world has yet seen But nothing is as it seems and as the scene shifts from London to the USA and then to Paris and the hidden workings of the DGSE the French secret service a complex plan is exposed involving those at the heart of government that will shatter the world order that has existed for almost a century Thereafter against the background of mass migration in Europe a complex story emerges linking Nazi occupied France in 1943 and London in the near future and from Beirut in 1982 to the plains of Kansas and the suburbs of Paris as a conspiracy unfolds that will change history and alter the lives of millions As the end game is played out during the preparations of the coronation ceremony of King Charles III at Westminster Abbey life or death for millions hangs in the balance CMJ New Music Report ,2000-05-01 CMJ New Music Report is the primary source for exclusive charts of non commercial and college radio airplay and independent and trend forward retail sales CMJ s trade publication compiles playlists for college and non commercial stations often a prelude to larger success Federal Claims Reporter ,2007 Against Wind and Tide Ousmane K Power-Greene,2014-09-05 How and why free blacks resisted relocation to Liberia A fine contribution to the story of African colonization movements in early American history The Journal of American History Against Wind and Tide tells the story of African Americans battle against the American Colonization Society ACS founded in 1816 with the intention to return free blacks to its colony Liberia Although ACS members considered free black colonization in Africa a benevolent enterprise most black leaders rejected the ACS fearing that the organization sought forced removal As Ousmane K Power Greene s story shows these African American anticolonizationists did not believe Liberia would ever be a true black American homeland In this study of anticolonization agitation Power Greene draws on newspapers meeting minutes and letters to explore the concerted effort on the part of nineteenth century black activists community leaders and spokespersons to challenge the American Colonization Society s attempt to make colonization of free blacks federal policy The ACS insisted the plan embodied empowerment The United States they argued would never accept free blacks as citizens and the only solution to the status of free blacks was to create an autonomous nation that would fundamentally reject racism at its core But the activists and reformers on the opposite side believed that the colonization movement was itself deeply racist and in fact one of the greatest obstacles for African Americans to gain citizenship in the United States Power Greene synthesizes debates about colonization and emigration situating this complex and enduring issue into an ever broader conversation about nation building and identity formation in the Atlantic world The Pacific Reporter ,1905 California Appellate Decisions California. Johnsen,2006-08-19 By examining the feminist interventions of contemporary women writers working in this subgenre Johnsen advances the existing critical discussion of women s crime fiction The writers studied here bring research expertise to bear on their chosen historical settings creating a powerful but widely accessible statement about women in history
