Though the off-road mileage is low and very straightforward, there are several miles of 'semi-off-road', very quiet lanes with grass growing up in the middle, that are rarely used by anything other than farm vehicles. Be prepared for some stiff road-climbing, which saves the route in Grade 2, rewarded by an exhilarating downhill into Woolcombe. The shortened circuit avoids the major hills by the B 3234, and family groups would be advised to try and avoid this section in the busiest periods of the holiday season. The route can easily be mixed and matched with the Bourton Strowes circuit — the full combination giving a route of 23 miles (34.9km).

Stam. Woolcombe. Park on the Marine Drive, signed just S of the village. Croyde and Georgeham would be equally convenient, or if approaching from Ilfracombe, Barnstaple etc., the point where the route crosses the A 361 at Haddon Mills.
