North Woods Walkabout:

North Woods Walkabout Nan Turner Waldron, 1998-11-01 Reflections on life and adventure in the beautiful wilds of Maine from dealing with a sudden storm to encounters with animals and human travellers to the joy of being alone with nature to Native American lore to the myriad voices heard in the woods To Walk About in Freedom Carole Emberton, 2022-03-08 The extraordinary life of Priscilla Joyner and her guest along with other formerly enslaved people to define freedom after the Civil War Priscilla Joyner was born into the world of slavery in 1858 North Carolina and came of age at the dawn of emancipation Raised by a white slaveholding woman Joyner never knew the truth about her parentage She grew up isolated and unsure of who she was and where she belonged feelings that no emancipation proclamation could assuage Her life story candidly recounted in an oral history for the Federal Writers Project captures the intimate nature of freedom Using Joyner's interview and the interviews of other formerly enslaved people historian Carole Emberton uncovers the deeply personal emotional journeys of freedom's charter generation the people born into slavery who walked into a new world of freedom during the Civil War From the seemingly mundane to the most vital emancipation opened up a myriad of new possibilities what to wear and where to live what jobs to take and who to love Although Joyner was educated at a Freedmen's Bureau school and married a man she loved slavery cast a long shadow Uncertainty about her parentage haunted her life and as Jim Crow took hold throughout the South segregation disfranchisement and racial violence threatened the loving home she made for her family But through it all she found beauty in the world and added to it where she could Weaving together illuminating voices from the charter generation To Walk About in Freedom gives us a kaleidoscopic look at the lived experiences of emancipation and challenges us to think anew about the consequences of failing to reckon with the afterlife of slavery Northwoods Pulp Thomas Sparrow, 1999-08 Walk About Guide To Alaska Shawn Lyons, 2018-03-01 Shawn Lyons an avid hiker and hill scrambler grew up in the Boston area and spent his early years wandering the White Mountains At the age of 17 he hiked the Appalachian Trail from Georgia to Maine and at 18 hiked the Long Trail from Massachusetts to Canada Since moving to Alaska he has continued to hike and climb extensively So much that after countless long hikes through innumerable valleys and over many summits Shawn is the Acknowledged Alaska Hiking Authority As an ultra athlete he is a nine time winner of the Iditashoe wilderness snowshoe race and three time winner of the 100 mile Coldfoot Classic held each year on Halloween above the Arctic Circle Shawn's narratives about his hikes and races often appear in hiking and climbing publications Walk About Rory I. Jagdeo, 2020-10-28 Rory I Jagdeo lost his brother Steve to COVID 19 and was inspired to write this story of leaving Guyana at almost twenty years old boarding an airplane for the first time to Toronto Canada It was an unlikely journey for a man with such humble beginnings a man whose great grandparents were taken from India to work on a sugar plantation as indentured servants in the late 1800s In this autobiography he looks back at his boyhood and adolescence growing up in a village called Fyrish on the Northeastern coast of Guyana a country on South America's North Atlantic coast and how life changed when he went to college in Toronto From there he highlights his life s challenges pleasures and close calls While his life has been challenging he has never given up With hard work he has followed destiny s path and explored the pleasures of life From his life as a musician and recording artist to his adventures traveling to his romantic exploits and time as a caregiver the author celebrates his incredible life
