Across the Seas in Prehistoric Northeast Asia Yaroslav Kuzmin,2024-10-16 This book provides the current knowledge on prehistoric human contacts and migrations in Northeast Asia consisting of far eastern Russia Northeastern Siberia Korea Northeast China and Japan using obsidian as a commodity The aim of this book is to reconstruct the patterns of prehistoric exchange and human movements in the Upper Palaeolithic and Neolithic of Northeast Asia The proposed book is the first comprehensive summary of obsidian provenance and issues related to prehistoric human contacts migrations and early seafaring in Northeast Asia The particular importance of this book is that obsidian is used as a commodity to establish the movements of ancient people that is almost impossible to do using traditional archaeological approaches The book contains updated information on the vast region with a multitude of obsidian sources and artefacts based on the author s first hand knowledge generated in the last 30 years It makes this book a unique source of information derived from Russian Japanese Korean and Chinese publications as well as English summaries for comparison between different parts of Northeast Asia

The Palaeolithic of Northeast Asia Vitaly A. Kashin,2023-01-26 This volume combines details of discoveries of Palaeolithic sites in a vast region of Northeast Asia covering mostly the northeastern part of modern Russia and meticulous analysis of hypotheses ideas and concepts related to the Northeast Asian Palaeolithic Cultural Traditions in the Prehistory of Northeast Asia Chung Ho Lee,1973 The Peoples of Northeast Asia through Time Richard Zgusta,2015-06-29 The focus of Richard Zgusta s The Peoples of Northeast Asia through Time is the formation of indigenous and cultural groups of coastal northeast Asia including the Ainu the Paleoasiatic peoples and the Asiatic Eskimo Most chapters begin with a summary of each culture at the beginning of the colonial era which is followed by an interdisciplinary reconstruction of prehistoric cultures that have direct ancestor descendant relationships with the modern ones An additional chapter presents a comparative discussion of the ethnographic data including subsistence patterns material culture social organization and religious beliefs from a diachronic viewpoint Each chapter includes maps and extensive references The Prehistory of Food Chris Gosden,Jon G. Hather,2004-01-14 The Prehistory of Food sets subsistence in its social context by focusing on food as a cultural artefact It brings together contributors with a scientific and biological expertise as well as those interested in the patterns of consumption and social change and includes a wide range of case studies Earth Surface Processes and Environmental Changes in East Asia Kenji Kashiwaya,Ji Shen,Ju Yong Kim,2015-06-11 This book examines relationships between climate hydrological changes and other phenomena including land use and natural disasters during the Holocene and recent past. In particular periods of rapid climatic shifts such as global warming and global cooling are examined through paleohydrological and other studies of various lake catchment systems in East Asia from Mongolia in the north to Taiwan in the south. A number of different research techniques are used in the work presented here including sediment analysis and optically stimulated luminescence dating and the reader learns how the lake catchment system functions as a proxy observatory for past and present environmental monitoring. The lake catchments studied by the authors of this volume are under similar climatic conditions i.e. under the East Asia monsoon with some systematic difference in climatic factors. Both proxy and observation data are available for the surrounding countries provisions against natural disasters that are related to climate hydrological events and readers will see how present instrumental observation data can be connected to past proxy data sediment information in the system.

A typology of questions in Northeast Asia and beyond Andreas Hölzl, 2018-08-29 This study investigates the distribution of linguistic and specifically structural diversity in Northeast Asia NEA defined as the region north of the Yellow River and east of the Yenisei In particular it analyzes what is called the grammar of questions GQ i e those aspects of any given language that are specialized for asking questions or regularly combine with these The bulk of the study is a bottom up description and comparison of GQs in the languages of NEA The addition of the phrase and beyond to the title of this study serves two purposes First languages such as Turkish and Chuvash are included despite the fact that they are spoken outside of NEA since they have ties to or even originated in the region Second despite its focus on one area the typology is intended to be applicable to other languages as well Therefore it makes extensive use of data from languages outside of NEA The restriction to one category is necessary for reasons of space and clarity and the process of zooming in on one region allows a higher resolution and historical accuracy than is usually the case in linguistic typology The discussion mentions over 450 languages and dialects from NEA and beyond and gives about 900 glossed examples The aim is to achieve both a cross linguistically plausible typology and a maximal resolution of the linguistic diversity of Northeast Asia
