The Norton Book of American Short Stories Peter S. Prescott, 1988 The Norton Anthology of American Literature Baym, Nina, Levine, Robert S, 2011-12-31 The Eighth Edition features a diverse and balanced variety of works and thorough but judicious editorial apparatus throughout The new edition also includes more complete works much requested new authors 170 in text images new and re thought contextual clusters and other tools that help instructors teach the course they want to teach The Norton Anthology of Short Fiction Bausch, Richard, 2015-02-18 The Norton Anthology of Short Fiction shorter edition features 73 works many of them new to this edition by 69 authors offering a broad collection of short stories with the most thoughtful annotations and apparatus on the market With a new Authors in Depth feature an extensive Reviews and Commentaries section and expanded coverage of Writers on Writing the shorter eighth edition provides a wealth of criticism of key works and authors as well as the opportunity to look deeper into the craft of fiction The Anchor Book of New American Short Stories Ben Marcus, 2007-12-18 In twenty nine separate but ingenious ways these stories seek permanent residence within a reader They strive to become an emotional or intellectual cargo that might accompany us wherever or however we go If we are made by what we read if language truly builds people into what they are how they think the depth with which they feel then these stories are to me premium material for that construction project You could build a civilization with them Ben Marcus from the Introduction Award winning author of Notable American Women Ben Marcus brings us this engaging and comprehensive collection of short stories that explore the stylistic variety of the medium in America today Sea Oak by George Saunders Everything Ravaged Everything Burned by Wells Tower Do Not Disturb by A M Homes The Girl in the Flammable Skirt by Aimee Bender The Caretaker by Anthony Doerr The Old Dictionary by Lydia Davis The Father s Blessing by Mary Caponegro The Life and Work of Alphonse Kauders by Aleksandar Hemon People Shouldn t Have to be the Ones to Tell You by Gary Lutz Histories of the Undead by Kate Braverman When Mr Pirzada Came to Dine by Jhumpa Lahiri Down the Road by Stephen Dixon X Number of Possibilities by Joanna Scott Tiny Smiling Daddy by Mary Gaitskill Brief Interviews with Hideous Men by David Foster Wallace The Sound Gun by Matthew Derby Short Talks by Anne Carson Field Events by Rick Bass Scarliotti and the Sinkhole by Padgett Powell The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction

Seeing Ourselves Alan Cheuse, 2007-07-04 Cheuse a writer and National Public Radio contributor has put together an anthology that starts as a collection of wonderful literature but by means of the editors selection and commentary becomes a social history of the nation

The Norton Anthology of Contemporary Fiction Ronald Verlin Cassill, 1988 Master teachers and writers R V Cassill and Joyce Carol Oates offer here a refreshed and updated edition of The Norton Anthology of Contemporary Fiction celebrating not only an enduring literary genre but also that genre s continuing energy and diversity

A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2010-02-12 A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past 200 years Sets the short story in context paying attention to the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles Contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon with close attention to the achievements of women writers as well as such important genres as the ghost story and detective fiction Embraces diverse traditions including African American Jewish American Latino Native American and regional short story writing Includes a section focused on specific authors and texts from Edgar Allan Poe to John Updike
