California Dreams and American Contradictions Monique McDade, 2023-03 California Dreams and American Contradictions establishes a genealogy of western American women writers publishing between 1870 and 1965 to argue that both white women and women of color regionalized dominant national literary trends to negotiate the contradictions between an American liberal individualism and American equality Monique McDade analyzes works by Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Helen Hunt Jackson Sui Sin Far and a previously unstudied African American writer Eva Rutland to trace an archive of western American women writers who made visible what dominant genres subsumed under images of American progress and westward expansion Read together these writers provide new entry points into the political debates that have plagued the United States since the nation s founding and that set the precedent for westward expansion Their romances regional sketches memoirs and journalism point to the inherently antagonistic relationship between a Rooseveltian rugged individualism that encouraged an Anglo male dominated West and the progressive equality and opportunity the West seemingly promised disenfranchised citizens The writers included in California Dreams and American Contradictions challenged literature s role in creating regional division conformist communities that support nationally sponsored images of gendered ethnic and immigrant others and liberal histories validated through a strategic vocabulary rooted in freedom equality and progress

Christmas in July Diane Jacobs, 2023-11-15 In this first critical biography of Preston Sturges Diane Jacobs brings to life the great comic filmmaker whose career Andrew Sarris described as one of the most brilliant and bizarre bursts of creation in the history of the American cinema Jacobs uses letters and manuscripts never before revealed as well as interviews with people who knew Sturges including three of his wives to portray this fascinating contradictory man In addition to discussing his major films she also examines heretofore unknown work and shows that Sturges was highly creative even near the end of his life a time when many believed he had lost his touch Sturges secured his place in film history as the creator of such classic films as The Lady Eve Sullivan s Travels and The Palm Beach Story In 1939 he became the first screenwriter to win the right to direct his own script the result was the Oscar winning The Great McGinty Creator of Unfaithfully Yours The Miracle of Morgan s Creek and Hail the Conquering Hero he was the third highest paid man in the United States by the late 1940s He owned a swank Hollywood restaurant and was known as an ebullient raconteur as well as a world famous filmmaker A little over a decade later Sturges died in New York impoverished and rejected by Hollywood The euphoria of success the fitfulness of luck the promise and poignancy of the American Dream the themes of Sturges s work also marked the man Diane Jacobs achieves a singular success in illuminating his extraordinary life This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1992

Border Bodies Bernadine Marie Hernández, 2022-03-10 In this study of sex gender sexual violence and power along the border Bernadine Marie Hernández brings to light under heard stories of women who lived in a critical era of American history Elaborating on the concept of sexual capital she uses little known newspapers and periodicals letters testimonios court cases short stories and photographs to reveal how sex violence and capital conspired to govern not only women's bodies but their role in the changing American Southwest Hernández focuses on a time when the borderlands saw a rapid influx of white settlers who encountered elite landholding Californios Hispanos and Tejanos Sex was inseparable from power in the borderlands and women were integral to the stabilization of that power In drawing these stories from the archive Hernández illuminates contemporary ideas of sexuality through the lens of the borderland's history of expansionist violent and gendered conquest By extension Hernández argues that Mexicana Nuevomexicana Californiana and Tejana women were key actors in the formation of the western United States even as they are too often erased from the region's story
