China's Power and Asian Security Mingjiang Li, Kalyan M. Kemburi, 2014-11-27 One of the most significant factors for contemporary international relations is the growth of China's economic military and political power. Indeed, few analysts would dispute the observation that China's power has strongly influenced the structure of the international system: major power strategic relations, international security, the patterns of trans-border economic activities, and most importantly, the political and security dynamics in Asia in the twenty-first century. This book maps the growth of China's political, economic, and military capabilities and its impact on the security order in Asia over the coming decades. While updating the emerging power dimensions and prevailing discourse, it provides a nuanced analysis of whether the growth of Chinese power is resulting in Beijing becoming more assertive or even aggressive in its behavior and pursuit of national interests. It also examines how the key Asian countries perceive and react to the growth of China's power and how US rebalancing would play out in the context of Beijing's political, economic, and military power. China's Power and Asian Security will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Asian politics, Chinese politics, security studies, and international security and international relations more generally.

Transnational Trajectories in East Asia Yasemin Nuhoğlu Soysal, 2014-11-20 In recent decades, East Asia has become increasingly interconnected through trade, investment, migration, and popular culture at regional and global levels. At the same time, the region has seen renewed national assertiveness and nationalist impulses. The book interrogates these seemingly contradictory developments as they bear on the transformations of the nation and citizenship in East Asia. Conventionally, studies on East Asia juxtapose these developments, focusing on the much-exercised dichotomy of the national and transnational. In contrast, this book suggests a different orientation. First, it moves beyond the simplistic view that demarcates the transnational as the West. Second, it does not view the national and transnational as distinct or contradictory spheres of influence and analysis but rather focuses on the interactions between the two, with a view on how these interactions work to transform the ideals and practices of the good nation, good society, and good citizen. The chapters cover a broad range of empirical research education science immigration multicultural policy human rights gender and youth orientations art and food flows politics of values and regional identity which highlight the ways in which the nation is reconfigured and the relationship between the citizen and national collective is redefined in relation to transnational dynamics and frameworks Transnational Trajectories in East Asia provides a new perspective on and original analysis of transnational processes bringing a fresh understanding to developments of the nation and citizenship in the region It will be of great interest to students and scholars of transnationalization and globalization comparative citizenship migration and multiculturalism and Asian politics society and regionalism Nepal Between China and India Gaurav

Bhattarai,2022-06-17 Nepal has a non neutral history As an imperial and expansionist power in the Himalayas from the days of its unification in 1769 AD to the Anglo Nepal war of 1815 Nepal never remained neutral Also during the period of Colonialism in South Asia and particularly after losing the war with the British in 1816 Nepal never exercised the policy of neutrality Rather Nepal was raiding Tibet assisting British India in Sepoy Mutiny and stood by Britain in the two world wars Besides Nepal militarily backed independent India in 1948 over Hyderabad question But why Nepal suddenly had to take a refuge in neutrality after the political change of 1950 Was it because of Nepal s internal politics or an attempt to cope with new arrangements in regional security Nepal s fascination with neutrality was so swifter and inadvertent that Kathmandu hitherto has never initiated any policy debates over the all weather choice Power elites in Nepal still misperceive neutrality as non alignment The aim of the book however is not only limited to distinguishing neutrality with non alignment in the Nepali context but weighs Nepal s claim to neutrality through the Indian and Chinese perceptions to underline the presence of ambiguity and uncertainty in Nepal s claim to neutrality Illustrating Nepal s attempt to neutrality as a mere survival strategy this study is less hopeful about Nepal s foreign policy institutions abandoning their Cold War worldview by embracing the strategy of sustenance in today s interdependent and globalized world Because as the book suggests power elites in Kathmandu are customarily lured by the ephemeral yet sporadic geopolitical ambitions either through discourses or deeds The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low,1966 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers Take a Walk Through My Shtetl Eli W.
