Norwegian Intelligence Service 1945 1970 Northern Vigil:

Allied and Axis Signals Intelligence in World War II David Alvarez, 2013-11-05 The importance of codebreaking and signals intelligence in the diplomacy and military operations of World War II is reflected in this study of the cryptanalysts not only of the US and Britain but all the Allies The codebreaking war was a global conflict in which many countries were active The contributions reveal that for the Axis as well as the Allies success in the signals war often depended upon close collaboration among alliance partners Secrets of Signals Intelligence During the Cold War Matthew M. Aid, Cees Wiebes, 2013-11-05 In recent years the importance of Signals Intelligence Sigint has become more prominent especially the capabilities of reading and deciphering diplomatic military and commercial communications of other nations This work reveals the role of intercepting messages during the Cold War The Clandestine Cold War in Asia, 1945-65 Richard J. Aldrich, Ming-Yeh Rawnsley, 2013-01-11 A range of clandestine Cold War activities in Asia from intelligence and propaganda to special operations and security support is examined here The contributions draw on newly opened archives and a two day conference on the subject Secrets of Signals Intelligence During the Cold War and Beyond Matthew M. Aid, Cees Wiebes, 2001 In recent years the importance of Signals Intelligence Sigint has become more prominent especially the capabilities and possibilities of reading and deciphering diplomatic military and commercial communications of other nations This growing awareness of the importance of intelligence applies not only to the activities of the big services but also to those smaller nations like The Netherlands For this reason The Netherlands Intelligence Association NISA was recently established in which academics and former and still active members of The Netherlands intelligence community work together in order to promote research into the history of Dutch intelligence communities American-British-Canadian Intelligence Relations, 1939-2000 David Stafford, Rhodri Jeffreys-Jones, 2000 During the second half of the 20th century intelligence co operation between the three North Atlantic powers of America Britain and Canada played a vital role in Western struggles against Nazi Germany Imperial Japan Soviet Russia and their lesser allies As demonstrated in the case studies in this volume World War II cemented loose and often informal inter allied agreements on security intelligence that had preceded it and created new and important areas of close and formal co operation in such areas as codebreaking and foreign intelligence But what was the true nature of this co operation Wartime myths have obscured much of the reality and while the western powers undoubtedly benefited from the dividends of these agreements during the Cold War that followed they also experienced restrictions on national sovereignty whose costs have often caused controversy while the search for co operation frequently provided cause for friction American-British-Canadian Intelligence Relations, 1939-2000 Rhodri Jeffreys-Jones, David Stafford, 2014-04-08 This work considers for the first time the intelligence relationship between three important North Atlantic powers in the Twenty first century from WWII to post Cold War As demonstrated in the case studies in this volume World War II cemented loose and often informal inter allied agreements on security intelligence that had preceded it and created new and important areas of close and formal co operation in such areas as codebreaking and foreign intelligence Choice ,1999 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 The Norwegian Intelligence Service, 1945-1970 Olav Riste (politologue).),1999 The Norwegian Intelligence Service, 1945-1970 Olav Riste,2014-02-04 This is a history of the Norwegian Intelligence Service NIS during the Cold War based on its secret archives The author describes a service that grew from a handful of specialists in 1946 to a multi faceted organization with a personnel of about 1000 by the end of the 1960s Los Angeles Magazine ,2003-11 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian

The Norwegian Intelligence Service Olav Riste,1999 After many imaginative and often speculative books about the Norwegian intelligence service this book represents an authentic and thoroughly documented history The author presents detailed descriptions of the build up of a network of Norwegian signals intelligence stations in the north border crossings by clandestine agents the reporting of Norwegian merchant mariners from ports behind the Iron Curtain the intimate co operation between the NIS and the secret services of the United States and other countries as well as of the establishment of a Stay Behind network Jacket SECRET ALLIANCES TONY.
