Nostalgia Del Futuro:

Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process

The Cinema of Víctor Erice Linda C. Ehrlich, 2007-02-01 To coincide with the recent DVD release of The Spirit of the Beehive this paperback collection of essays focuses on the work of acclaimed Spanish director Víctor Erice Originally published in hardcover under the title An Open Window this expanded edition draws on original essays reprints and new translations from an international group of writers New to this edition are four essays from noted film scholars including editor Linda C Ehrlich as well as three added essays from the filmmaker himself Both the original and new material provide a deeper appreciation of Erice s three feature length films The Spirit of the Beehive El espíritu de la colmena 1973 El Sur 1982 and Dream of Light aka The Quince Tree Sun El sol del membrillo 1992 as well as his shorter works including his most recent accomplishment La morte rouge 2006 This anthology examines the aesthetic historical and sociological forces at work in Erice s films and includes an extensive interview with the director This broad array of writings provides insight into not only three unforgettable films but also into twentieth century Spanish society as well as world cinema The Cinema of Víctor Erice An Open Window will serve as an important resource to measure the career of this director who along with Buñuel Saura and Almodóvar has helped show the world the creative range of Spanish cinema With additional essays translations and illustrations this paperback edition explores new avenues of expression pursued by one of the most poetic of modern filmmakers

Detecting Detection Peter Baker, Deborah Shaller, 2012-06-14 We indulge our fascination with detection in many ways only some of which occur in the detective story In fact modern fiction regularly uses elements of a detective narrative to tell another story altogether to engage characters narrators and readers with questions of identity with examinations of moral and ethical reasoning with critiques of social and political injustices and with the metaphysics of meaning itself Detective plots cross cultural and national boundaries and occur in different ways and different genres Taken together they suggest important contemporary understandings of who and what we are how and what we aspire to become Detecting Detection gathers writing from the UK North and South America Europe and Asia to draw together instances of the detective plot in contemporary fiction It is unique not only in addressing the theme a recurring one in modern literature but in tracking the interest in detectives and detection across international borders

Understanding Pedagogic Documentation in Early Childhood Education

Joao Formosinho, Jan Peeters, 2019-04-30 Much more than simply recording events pedagogical documentation is a revolutionary educational approach that enables practitioners to capture and understand the ways in which children learn and think Exploring the use of pedagogic documentation across five different cultures this book offers a unique insight into the conditions and methods through which pedagogical documentation might become an effective means of connecting teaching and learning By drawing on theory research based evidence and practice Understanding Pedagogic Documentation in Early Childhood Education reveals pedagogic documentation as an instigator for critical reflection on practice for the creation of new pedagogical approaches and improvements in quality Observing and documenting the lived educational experience of children and practitioners is emphasised as a means of acknowledging their voice and rights of revealing their knowledge their competences their attitudes and dispositions to learning Offering contextualised approaches and considering the challenges involved in observing and documenting day to day practice in early childhood settings chapters encourage professionals to reflect and recognise the value of documentation for children staff members and the wider community Making a crucial contribution to the debates on pedagogical documentation Understanding Pedagogic Documentation in Early Childhood Education offers researchers students policy makers and professionals a comprehensive and multicultural perspective on pedagogical documentation

The Hundred Languages of Children

Carolyn Edwards, Lella Gandini, George Forman, 1998-04-21 The city run early childhood program of Reggio Emilia Italy has become recognized and acclaimed as one of the best systems of education in the world Over the past forty years educators there have evolved a distinctive innovative approach that supports children's well being and fosters their intellectual development through a systematic focus on symbolic representation Young children from birth to age six are encouraged to explore their environment and express themselves through many languages or modes of expression including words movement drawing painting sculpture shadow play collage and music Leading children to surprising levels of symbolic skill and creativity the system is not private and elite but rather involves full day child care open to all including children with disabilities This new Second Edition reflects the growing interest and deepening reflection upon the Reggio approach as well as increasing sophistication in adaptation to the American context Included are many entirely new chapters and an updated list of resources along with original chapters revised and extended The book represents a dialogue between Italian educators who founded and developed the system and North Americans who have considered its implications for their own settings and issues The book is a comprehensive introduction covering history and philosophy the parent perspective curriculum and methods of teaching school and system organization the use of space and physical environments and adult professional roles including special education The final section describes implications for American policy and professional development and adaptations in United States primary preschool and child care classrooms Bambina nel tempo Scarlet Nabi, 2013-12-27 L elastico del tempo si avvolge intorno a se stesso ora pi esteso ora pi contratto come il gomito aureo di un nautilus che vomita linee di forza perpendicolari tangenti che penetrano le direzioni dello spazio agglomerate intorno a un anima o a uno spirito fate voi revenant alcolico da assorbire a brevi sorsi d aria e materia pesante insieme con i suoni che a discrezione punteggiano in calce i frammenti musicali emersi dalla memoria Bujeu Brian d Araxe

Literary Censorship in Francisco Franco's Spain and Getulio Vargas' Brazil, 1936-1945 Gabriela de Lima Grecco, 2020-04-14 This book presents two systems of censorship and literary promotion revealing how literature can be molded to support authoritarian regimes The issue is complex in that at a descriptive level the strategies and methods new states use to control communication through the written word can be judged by how and when formal decrees were issued and how publishing media whether in the form of publishing companies or at the individual level engaged with political overseers But equally literature was a means of resistance against an authoritarian regime not only for writers but for readers as well From the point of view of historical memory and intellectual history stories of people without history and the production of their texts through the literary underground can be constructed from subsequent testimony from books sold in secret to the writings of women in jail to books that were written but never published or distributed in any way and to myriad compelling circumstances resulting from living under fascist authority A parallel study on two fascist movements provides a unique viewpoint at literary social and political levels Comparative analysis of literary censorship literary reward allows an understanding of the balance between dictatorship official policy and what literary acts were deemed acceptable The regime need to control its population is revealed in the ways that a particular type of literature was encouraged in the engagement of propaganda promotion and in the setting up of institutions to gain international acceptance of the regime The work is an important contribution to the history of twentieth century authoritarianism and the development fascist ideas

The chapters address the social, economic, and political realities in Cuba, the Caribbean, and Latin America as the contexts of Cuban feminist theology, the challenges of ecumenism, the urgency of feminist and liberationist theologies amongst patriarchal and oppressive systems throughout the world, and the importance of theological education.

The Writings of Carlos Fuentes Raymond Leslie Williams, 2010-07-01 Smitten by the modernity of Cervantes and Borges at an early age, Carlos Fuentes has written extensively on the cultures of the Americas and elsewhere. His work includes over a dozen novels, among them The Death of Artemio Cruz, Christopher Unborn, The Old Gringo, and Terra Nostra; several volumes of short stories; numerous essays on literary, cultural, and political topics; and some theater. In this book, Raymond Leslie Williams traces the themes of history, culture, and identity in Fuentes' work, particularly in his complex major novel Terra Nostra. He opens with a biography of Fuentes that links his works to his intellectual life. The heart of the study is Williams' extensive reading of the novel Terra Nostra, in which Fuentes explores the presence of Spanish culture and history in Latin America. Williams concludes with a look at how Fuentes' other fiction relates to Terra Nostra, including Fuentes' own division of his work into fourteen cycles that he calls La Edad del Tiempo, and with an interview in which Fuentes discusses his concept of this cyclical division.

Blast, Corrupt, Dismantle, Erase Brett Josef Grubisic, Gisèle M. Baxter, Tara Lee, 2014-06-16 What do literary dystopias reflect about the times? In Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase, contributors address this amorphous but pervasive genre using diverse critical methodologies to examine how North America is conveyed or portrayed in a perceived age of crisis, accelerated uncertainty, and political volatility. Drawing from contemporary novels such as Cormac McCarthy's The Road, Neil Gaiman's American Gods, and the work of Margaret Atwood and William Gibson, to name a few, this book examines dystopian literature produced by North American authors between the signing of NAFTA in 1994 and the tenth anniversary of 9/11 in 2011. As the texts illustrate, awareness of, and deep concern about, perceived vulnerabilities—ends of water, oil, food, capitalism, empires, stable climates, ways of life, non-human species, and entire human civilizations—have become central to public discourse over the same period. By asking questions such as "What are the distinctive qualities of post-NAFTA North American dystopian literature?" and "What does this literature reflect about the tensions and contradictions of the inchoate continental community of North America?" Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase serves to resituate dystopian writing within a particular geo-social setting and introduce a productive means to understand both North American dystopian writing and its relevant engagements with a restricted, mapped reality.

Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith, 1997-03-26 A comprehensive encyclopedic guide to the authors, works, and topics crucial to the literature of Central and South America and the Caribbean, the Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature includes over 400 entries written by experts in the field of Latin American studies.

Most entries are of 1500 words but the encyclopedia also includes survey articles of up to 10 000 words on the literature of individual countries of the colonial period and of ethnic minorities including the Hispanic communities in the United States Besides presenting and illuminating the traditional canon the encyclopedia also stresses the contribution made by women authors and by contemporary writers Outstanding Reference Source Outstanding Reference Book Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,1962 I Compagni William A. Corsaro,Luisa Molinari,2005-09-02 Tells a complete story about the lives of children as they grow from young preschoolers to preadolescents in Modena Italy The authors both explore and participate in the rich complex history and development of the Italian early education system

Reframing the Emotional Worlds of the Early Childhood Classroom Samara Madrid,David Fernie,Rebecca Kantor,2014-10-30 This volume examines the emotional world of the early childhood classroom as it affects young children whose emotional wellbeing is crucial to successful learning educators for whom teaching is never a solely cognitive act parents and administrators In a culture where issues such as bullying and teacher burnout comprise major challenges to student success this book brings together diverse voices researchers practitioners children and parents and multiple perspectives theoretical and personal to refocus attention on the pivotal role of emotion in schools To do so editors Samara Madrid David Fernie and Rebecca Kantor envision emotion as a dynamic fluid and negotiated construct performed and produced in the daily lives of children and adults alike A nuanced yet cohesive analysis Reframing the Emotional Worlds of the Early Childhood Classroom thus presents a challenge to the overriding concern with quantifiable classroom achievement that increasingly threatens to push the emotional lives of classroom participants to the margins of educational and public discourse Seen and Heard Ellen Lynn Hall,Jennifer Kofkin Rudkin,2011-01-13 Using examples from a Reggio inspired school with children from ages 6 weeks to 6 years the authors emphasize the importance of children s rights and our responsibility as adults to hear their voices Seen and Heard summarizes research and theory pertaining to young children s rights in the United States and offers strategies educators can use to ensure the inclusion of children s perspectives in everyday decisions Real life classroom vignettes illustrate how young children perceive the idea of rights through observation and discussion The authors work is based on these essential ideas 1 the one hundred languages children use for exploring discovering constructing representing and conveying their ideas 2 the pedagogy of listening in which children and adults carefully attend to the world and to one another 3 the notion that all children have the right to participate in the communities in which they reside Italian Women and Autobiography Fabiana Cecchini,Ioana Raluca Larco,2011-01-18 The essays included in this collection examine issues such as identity and ideology which are at play in the female autobiography practice along with the problematicity that these trigger in terms of self representation and traditional formal boundaries The women writers analyzed here through mainly historical literary feminist and psychoanalytic lenses cover a long period in the history of Italy spanning from the Fascist era to our time In an attempt to organize and connect these texts which are chronologically far apart we have divided our contributions into two main parts The first Shapes of Ideology includes authors interacting primarily with political ideology in a way that eventually entails the challenge of the official technologies of gender De Lauretis 1987 and implicitly a reflection on the gendered identity In the second part Reconsidering ideology negotiating autobiography while the political ideology is not completely excluded it becomes however something more internalized and relevant to the writers quest for identity Such process bears consequences with respect to the canon of autobiography as authors experiment with new forms of autobiographical narratives and readers become more and more an integral component of this personal endeavor
