Evangelicals and Education Khim Harris, 2007-09-01 This is the first history of English public schools founded by Evangelicals in the nineteenth century Five existing public schools can be traced back to this period Cheltenham College Dean Close School Monkton Combe School Trent College and St Lawrence s College Some of these schools were set up in direct competition with new Anglo Catholic schools while others drew their inspiration from and to a greater or lesser extent were modelled on their rivals Harris documents for the first time the rise of Evangelical societies such as the influential Church Association and the little known Clerical and Lay Associations An extensive bibliography and useful biographical survey of influential Evangelicals of the period completes this groundbreaking study The Calling of Education Edward Shils, 2008-04-15 Throughout his long and prolific career Edward Shils brought an extraordinary knowledge of academic institutions to discussions about higher education The Calling of Education features Shils s most illuminating and incisive writing on this topic from the last twenty five years of his life The first essay The Academic Ethic articulates the unique ethical demands of the academic profession and directs special attention to the integration of teaching and research Other pieces including Shils s renowned Jefferson lectures focus on perennial issues in higher learning the meaning of academic freedom the connection between universities and the state and the criteria for appointing individuals to academic positions Edward Shils understood the university as a great symphonic conductor comprehends the value of each instrument and section both separately and in cooperation The Calling of Education offers Shils s insightful perspective on problems that are no less pressing than when he first confronted them Edward Shils 1910 1995 was distinguished service professor in the Committee on Social Thought and the department of sociology at the University of Chicago Among his many books published by the University of Chicago Press are Portraits A Gallery of Intellectuals and the three volume Selected Papers of Edward Shils Civic Media Literacies Paul Mihailidis, 2018-09-03 Civic life today is mediated Communities small and large are now using connective platforms to share information engage in local issues facilitate vibrant debate and advocate for social causes In this timely book Paul Mihailidis explores the texture of daily engagement in civic life and the resources human technological and practical that citizens employ when engaging in civic actions for positive social impact In addition to examining the daily civic actions that are embedded in media and digital literacies and human connectedness Mihailidis outlines a model for empowering young citizens to use media to meaningfully engage in daily life The Return Of The Soul Robert Smythe Hichens, 2007-01-01 The Cultural Moment in Tourism Laurajane Smith, Emma Waterton, Steve Watson, 2012-07-26 This book is a response to the burgeoning interest in cultural tourism and the associated need for a

coherently theorized approach for understanding the practices that such an interest creates Cultural tourism has become an important and popular aspect of contemporary tourism studies as well as providing a rich seam of upscale product development opportunities in the industry as a whole Much of the related literature however focuses upon describing and categorizing cultural tourism from a supply side perspective This has prompted the taxonomizing of cultural tourists on the basis of their level of involvement and interest in cultural tourism products and or their economic worth as a sought after market segment There have been few recent attempts at a rigorous re theorization of the issues beyond conventional representational theories this book aims to fill that void This groundbreaking volume provides a theoretical and empirical account of what it means to be a cultural or heritage tourist It achieves this by exploring the interactions of people with places spaces intangible heritage and ways of life not as linear alignments but as seductive moments of encounter engagement performance and meaning making which are constitutive of cultural experience in its broadest sense The book further explores encounters in cultural tourism as events that capture and constitute important social relations involving power and authority self consciousness and social position gender and space history and the present It also explores the consequences these insights have for our understanding of culture and heritage and its management in the context of tourist activity In capturing the cultural moment this book provides a better understanding of the motivations on site activities meaning constructions and other cultural work done by both tourists and tourist operators The volume confronts and explores the cultural political and economical interrelations between culture heritage and the tourism industry In so doing it also investigates how this co mingling of identity representation and social life may be better apprehended with the wider shift in critical thought towards notions of affect and performativity The book is a fundamental and influential contribution to research in this field It will be of significant value to students academics and researchers interested in this broad topic area
