Not Buying It My Year Without Shopping:

Not Buying it Judith Levine, 2006 By thinking harder about how it would feel to consume less we might just make ourselves and our planet a lot better cover Not Buying It Judith Levine, 2007-02-27 This cold turkey confession by an award winning journalist follows her progress and inevitable relapses over an entire year of not spending Brandishing the First Amendment Tamara Piety, 2012-02-08 Over the past two decades corporations and other commercial entities have used strategic litigation to win more expansive First Amendment protections for commercial speech from the regulation of advertising to the role corporate interests play in the political process most recently debated in the Supreme Court case of Citizens United v Federal Election Commission Tamara R Piety a nationally known critic of commercial and corporate speech argues that such an expansion of First Amendment speech rights imperils public health safety and welfare the reliability of commercial and consumer information the stability of financial markets and the global environment Beginning with an evaluation of commonly evoked philosophical justifications for freedom of expression Piety determines that while these are appropriate for the protection of an individual's rights they should not be applied too literally to commercial expression because the corporate person is not the moral equivalent of the human person She then gathers evidence from public relations and marketing behavioral economics psychology and cognitive studies to show how overly permissive extensions of First Amendment protections to commercial expression limit governmental power to address some of the major social economic and environmental challenges of our time The timeliness of the topic and the provision of original positions are sure to make the book a valuable contribution that should draw much attention Kevin W Saunders Michigan State University

goes organic becomes a bicycle nut turns off his power and generally becomes a tree hugging lunatic who tries to save the polar bears and the rest of the planet from environmental catastrophe while dragging his baby daughter and Prada wearing Four Seasons loving wife along for the ride And that s just the beginning In other words no trash no toxins in the water no elevators no subway no products in packaging no air conditioning no television What would it be like to try to live a no impact lifestyle Is it possible Could it catch on Is living this way more satisfying or less satisfying Harder or easier Is it worthwhile or senseless Are we all doomed or can our culture reduce the barriers to sustainable living so it becomes as easy as falling off a log These are the questions at the heart of this whole mad endeavor via which Colin Beavan hopes to explain to the rest of us how we can realistically live a more eco effective and by turns more content life in an age of inconvenient truths The Tyranny of Choice Renata Salecl,2011-08-04 We are encouraged from all sides to view our lives as being full of choices Like the products on a supermarket shelf our careers our relationships our bodies our very identities seem to be there for the choosing But paradoxically this seeming freedom to choose can create extreme anxiety and feelings of inadequacy and guilt The Tyranny of Choice explores how late capitalism s shrill exhortations to be oneself can be a tyranny which only leads to ever greater disquiet and how insistence on choice being a purely individual matter prevents social change With wisdom humour and sensitivity Renata Salecl examines the complexity of the essential human capacity to choose which has become mired in consumerist ironies A Field Guide for Immersion Writing Robin Hemley,2012 Discusses the various types of immersion writing including travel memoir and journalism and explains some of the issues that writers encounter in reporting about the factual world and in describing other people and their own inner experiences Shopomania Paul Berton,2022-10-15 A thought provoking and provocative challenge to consumerism with plenty of name dropping and celebrity antics Sassy and satirical Shopomania is an economic environmental and social study This light hearted dark souled dictionary of coined words or shoponyms takes readers on a roller coaster ride of avaricious antics and outrageous profligacy Shopping in one form or another has existed for millennia but aside from a few slumps each generation has outdone the previous one In the past fifty years shopping and its associated carbon footprint has grown exponentially Berton argues that if we invented today s consumer culture then we can invent something to replace it We can do a better job of making the cycle of stuff truly circular rather than linear We can be more environmentally socially and politically conscious of what we buy and how it comes to us and where it will go after we are finished with it A species that has made shopping ubiquitous can figure all these things out with little more than co operation and creativity and by asking if it is really necessary to own it now as we have been told endlessly since childhood Must we possess a thing to enjoy it Do we really need all that stuff The Happiness of Pursuit Chris Guillebeau,2014-09-09 A remarkable guide to the quests that give our lives meaning and how to find your own from the New York Times bestselling author of The 100 Startup and 100 Side Hustles If you like complacency and mediocrity do not read this book It s dangerously inspiring A J Jacobs author of The Know It All When he set
