Not Far From the Tree Esther C. Gropper, 2005-01-12 Sacred Realism Noël Valis, 2010-04-27 In this thoughtful and compelling book leading Spanish literature scholar Noël Valis re-examines the role of Catholicism in the modern Spanish novel While other studies of fiction and faith have focused largely on religious themes Sacred Realism views the religious impulse as a crisis of modernity a fundamental catalyst in the creative and moral development of Spanish narrative Mad Muse Jeffrey Berman, 2019-09-03 Many of the well respected scholarly studies of autobiographical writing have little or nothing to say about mental illness This book uncovers the mysterious relationship between mood disorders and creativity through the lives of seven writers demonstrating how mental illness is sometimes the driving force behind creativity

Nixon Under the Bodhi Tree and Other Works of Buddhist Fiction Kate Wheeler, 2004-06-15 An exciting inventive and multifaceted collection that includes everything from visionary short stories to fictionalized personal memoirs New Woman Fiction A. Heilmann, 2000-08-09 The New Woman was the symbol of the shifting categories of gender and sexuality and epitomised the spirit of the fin de siècle This informative monograph offers an interdisciplinary approach to the growing field of New Woman studies by exploring the relationship between first wave feminist literature the nineteenth century women's movement and female consumer culture The book expertly places the debate about femininity feminism and fiction in its cultural and socio-historical context examining New Woman fiction as a genre whose emerging theoretical discourse prefigured concepts central to second wave feminist theory The Body Is a Doorway: A Memoir Sophie Strand, 2025-03-04 A LIT HUB MOST ANTICIPATED BOOK OF 2025 In this lyrical radically expansive self-portrait celebrated poet author and lecturer Sophie Strand explores with searing insight and honesty the intersecting spaces of her own chronic illness the complex ecology of a changing world and the very nature of the stories we tell ourselves At age sixteen Sophie Strand bright agile fearless is suddenly beset by unexplained debilitating illness while on a family trip abroad Her once vibrant life becomes a tangled miasma of medication specialists anaphylaxis and seemingly never ending attempts to explain what has gone so terribly wrong And for many years thereafter Sophie's life becomes subsumed with ideas not of health but of explanation and the narrative of how and why she became sick But slowly through both profound fatigue with the medical industrial complex and a deeply entwined relationship with the natural world she comes to another more fundamental understanding of what has happened to her body What if sickness is not a separation from the body What if health is not quite so easy to see What if physical pain leaves us no choice but to return to our bodies the pinpricks and lightning of illness stitching us back into a physical presence our society has taught us to ignore In a work both expansively tender and shockingly frank Sophie Strand offers readers a window onto her own winding journey through the maze of chronic illness a web not unlike those created by the mycorrhizal fungi whose networks she begins to see as a metaphor for the profound connections between all species and the earth Grounded deeply in the mountains of the Hudson Valley each moment of this far reaching narrative snakes its way through the multi layered ecology of the land around us from the stunningly powerful pollen of a phlox plant to the unexpected beauty and wisdom of the woodchuck The Body Is a Doorway dives into the murky waters of sickness and trauma as well as the resonant challenges and joys of friendship young adulthood first love and fertility Throughout in precise sparkling language it explores questions both personal and universal Is there healing beyond the human Beyond the hope for a cure or a happy ending Is there something wilder and more symbiotic beyond narrow ideas of well being
