

if you say you're gay you are told that you are not gay and that you're going through a phase because you are a teenager or you're told that you are misreading that once you come out of this stage (you know as a teenager you are supposed to go through these stages) then you will not be gay that's their attitude if we know that we know that we know that we know that we know that we know that we are gay they still tell us that we're not it's just a phase I think that they don't want to believe that young people can be gay
